KING EDWARD

Operated on Today For Perityphlitis--The Coronation Postponed.

His Majesty Asks That Festivities in the Country Be Not Deferred--How the News Was Received in London.

LONDON, June 24, 12.29 p. m.—The coronation has been postponed indefinitely on account of the indisposition of King Edward.

LONDON, June 24, 12.40 p. m.—King Edward is suffering from perityphlitis, and is undergoing a surgical operation.

LONDON, June 24, 12.46 p. m.—Sir Francis Knollys, the king's private secretary, has issued the official medical announcement, as follows:

"The king is suffering from perityphlitis. His condition on Saturday was so satisfactory that it was hoped his majesty would be able to go through the ceremony. On Monday evening a recrudescence became manifest, rendering a surgical operation necessary today.

(Signed),
LISTER,
THOMAS SMITH,
LAKING,
THOMAS BARLOW,
TREVES.

LONDON, June 24, 1.06 p. m.—The operation on the king occurs at 2 p. m. It is privately admitted his majesty's condition is more serious than represented by the medical bulletin.

LONDON, June 24.—The first news of the renewed illness of the king came from the house of commons, where various court officials gave an intimation that the arrangements for Thursday would be suspended forthwith as the coronation would be postponed indefinitely on account of the indisposition of his majesty.

LONDON, June 24 (2.05 p. m.).—The operation on King Edward was performed at 2 o'clock. The king is now asleep.

Dr. Lister is Sir Joseph Lister, surgeon-general in ordinary to King Edward, famous for the discovery of antiseptic treatment in surgery. Thomas Smith is Sir Thos. Smith, surgeon-general to the king and late vice-president of the Royal college of surgeons. Laking is Sir Francis Henry Laking, physician in ordinary and surgeon apothecary to the king. Thomas Barlow is Sir Thomas Barlow, physician to his majesty's household and professor of clinical medicine and physician to the university college hospital. Treves is Sir Frederick Treves, surgeon-general to the king, and was surgeon extraordinary to the late Queen Victoria.

LONDON, June 24.—The sudden announcement of the postponement of the coronation, just on the eve of the ceremony caused the utmost consternation everywhere. The news spread like wild fire. The tens of thousands of occupants of the streets suddenly stood still under the sudden shock and gazed at one another in silent dread of what might come next. On Saturday and Sunday society was discussing the reports of the king's illness, and though the circumstantiality and sources from which they came precluded entire disbelief there was a disposition to doubt the stories, and when the positive denial was officially issued they were dismissed as unfounded. Hemorrhoids, apoplexy and lumbago were the king's maladies discussed in the clubs and drawing room and these discussions reiterated how the king even recently stated his belief that he would not live to be crowned. Prices immediately weakened on the stock exchange.

His majesty under ordinary conditions was not looked upon as a good subject for operations, and though he passed successfully through the ordeal it is believed that four or five weeks must elapse before he will be able to undergo the labors of the coronation ceremony. Therefore no date can yet be indicated for carrying out the coronation.

Official announcements of the king's serious illness were made to the public bodies as speedily as possible. Word was sent to the house of commons and the acting lord chamberlain, Lord Churchill, personally delivered to the Mansion House, the official residence of the lord mayor, a message regarding his majesty's illness, and at this morning's rehearsal of the coronation ceremony in Westminster Abbey, the Bishop of London, the Rt. Rev. Arthur Ingram, at the request of Lord Escher, the deputy governor of Windsor Castle made a statement as follows:

"I have to make a very sad announcement. The king is suffering from an illness which makes an operation necessary today. The coronation therefore is postponed."

The bishop requested the congregation to join in the litany out of the coronation service and pray for the recovery of the king. During the course of the afternoon the earl-marshall, the Duke of Norfolk, issued the following notice:

"The earl marshal has received the king's commands to express his majesty's deep sorrow that owing to his serious illness the coronation ceremony must be postponed. The celebration in London, will, in consequence, be likewise postponed, but it is the king's earnest hope that the celebrations in the country may be held as already arranged."

The king also expressed to the lord mayor his desire that his majesty's dinner to the poor of London be not postponed. Nothing has yet been decided regarding the movements of the foreign guests. The first intimation which Whitelaw Reid, the special ambassador of the United States to the coronation, had that anything was wrong was contained in a communication cancelling the state banquet which was to be held at Buckingham palace tonight, but no mention was then made of the postponement of the great ceremony of the week.

It is understood, however, that the special ambassadors and royal guests will return to their respective countries so soon as more definite news is received of the result of the operation. Outside of Buckingham Palace enormous throngs of people congregated since early morning for the purpose of witnessing the arrival of the special ambassadors who were to be received by the king and queen today. Large numbers of foreign representatives actually arrived, but the shortness of their stay was noticed, inquiries were made, and soon the news of his majesty's serious state of health was circulated among the waiting thousands.

At the various palaces and at the Grosvenor, Buckingham, Carlton, Cecil and other hotels where the foreign representatives are staying, the news created the greatest dismay.

LONDON, June 24.—2.46 p. m.—The following bulletin has been posted at Buckingham Palace:

"The operation has been successfully performed. A large abscess has been evacuated. The king has borne the operation well and is in a satisfactory condition."

LONDON, June 24.—In the house of commons the government leader, A. J. Balfour, announced that an operation had been performed on the king and that his majesty was progressing as well as possible. Mr. Balfour added that while the condition was undoubtedly grave, he did not intend to increase the public alarm by announcing the house.

LONDON, June 24.—Bulletin 3.40 p. m.—At 3.30 p. m., the king was progressing very satisfactorily.

METHODIST SYMPATHY.
SACKVILLE, N. B., June 24.—A telegram having announced the illness of his majesty the king the conference business was suspended. Drs. Stewart and Read led in prayer on behalf of the king and royal family in his hour of need and sorrow, and a resolution was adopted expressive of the sympathy of the conference and desire for his majesty's recovery. The resolution will be entered on the records.

IN OTTAWA.

(Special to the Star.)
OTTAWA, June 24.—In consequence of the postponement of the king's coronation the government has issued a proclamation withdrawing the public holiday on Thursday. The proclamation was signed by Sir Henry Strong, acting governor general, at noon.

Sir Richard Cartwright this morning received the following cablegram: "Cartwright, Ottawa.—Have to report the very sad intelligence of his majesty's serious illness. He has to undergo an operation this afternoon. Coronation ceremonies indefinitely postponed. (Signed) Laurier."

AT FREDERICTON.

(Special to the Star.)
FREDERICTON, June 24.—Gloom was cast over the city by the dispiriting news about the king and all festivities have been declared off.

CAPT. BEALE DEAD.

(Special to the Star.)

NIAGARA, Ont., June 24.—Captain E. Percy Beale, late of his majesty's 10th Lincolnshire Regiment, is dead at his residence here. Captain Beale was a grandson of the late Sir John Beale, Baronet of Maidstone, Kent, and son of William Beale master in the court of chancery. He distinguished himself at the relief of Lucknow.

The members of the Narrows Baptist Sewing Circle will provide a dinner in the Temperance Hall at that place on July 1st. During the afternoon a sale of useful and fancy goods will be held. Ice cream and other refreshments will be served. Proceeds in aid of parsonage fund.

FREDERICTON.

Enquiry Into Deaf and Dumb Institution Affairs.

(Special to the Star.)
FREDERICTON, N. B., June 24.—Jesse, only daughter of James Hamilton, was married at two this afternoon to Ernest Langstroth, formerly of King's county, N. B., and lately of New York. Dean Partridge officiated, the ceremony taking place at the Cathedral. After a reception at the home of the bride's parents the happy couple took their departure for Somerville, Mass., their future home. Among the guests were Misses Hattie and Jennie Langstroth and Charles Langstroth of Nauwigewauk. The groom formerly taught school in this province, but is now an architect and builder in the States.

Commissioner Barry this morning began the inquiry into the affairs of the Deaf Dumb Institution. Nothing was done beyond organization. C. J. Milligan, manager of the Telegraph, and the complainant, was present with his counsel, Mr. Phinney, K. C., also A. E. McIntyre of the Telegraph and J. Harvey Brown.

Mr. Woodbridge requested that the charge of immorality be first investigated, as he considered it most important. He wanted this done while the pupils are at school, as after they return home they may be tampered with, stating that had been done in the past. Regarding the financial books, Mr. Woodbridge said many books and papers had been destroyed by the fire which burned the institution in September, 1897.

Mr. Barry stated that an interpreter would be necessary, as deaf persons would be called as witnesses. He was in communication with several parties, but neither could be here before the first of next week.

The inquiry was adjourned to July 2nd, at 10 a. m.

THE COUNCIL OF WOMEN.

The entertainment committee in connection with the local council of women met at Mrs. Tuck's, convener of committee, this morning. It is expected that the delegates and visitors to the National Council of Women will arrive on Wednesday, July 2nd.

On Thursday forenoon committees will meet at 10 a. m. and at 2 and 3 o'clock p. m. At 5 o'clock the members of the council will take tea with the ladies of the Golf club on their grounds. Thursday evening his worship Mayor White will give a reception in York Theatre in honor of the National Council.

James Manchester has placed "The Globe," Manchester's track, at the disposal of the entertainment committee for Saturday afternoon. Arrangements have therefore been made for a picnic, which will be open to all members of societies in affiliation with the local council on application to their presidents for tickets, and to the delegates to the National Council with their host and hostess, together with visiting members to the National Council. Carriages will be provided for visiting delegates. The local board of directors of the Victorian Order of Nurses will have charge of the meeting on Tuesday evening, and it will probably take the form of a conference and social evening.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Case of Holms, Tobin and Briggs before the Grand Jury.

The grand jury of the present circuit met again this morning to consider the indictments against Albert Holm, William Holm, John Tobin and James Briggs.

His honor Judge McLeod in addressing the jury said: The first is a charge against Albert and Wm. Holm and John Tobin, for breaking and entering. The facts are the officers Rankins found two of these boys lurking in the rear of John Cullinan's store. Dissatisfied with their explanation the policemen arrested the Holm boys. One of them broke away and the other cut the officer with a knife. Tobin is said to have been near and to have been making warning whistles.

There is also an indictment against Albert Holm for cutting the policeman with a knife.

There is further an indictment against William Holm for stealing an overcoat from a hall in Col. Markham's house.

The other case is that against James Briggs. The indictment is against Kilson and Briggs. The store of Alex. Rowan was broken into and certain articles stolen. These were found by the police at the home of Kilson's father at Golden Grove. The young men were brought to jail. They escaped but Briggs was re-captured. There is also an indictment against Briggs for breaking jail.

These are all the cases that are to come before you for at present. The grand jury were out some time and found true bills against all the prisoners.

THE TELEGRAPH WAS WRONG.

A telegram from Quebec in today's Telegraph, referring to the Roman Catholic prelates present at the festivities there mentions "Mgr. Falconi apostolic delegate to the United States." The office of the apostolic delegate has been vacant since Cardinal Martinelli left Washington last month. Mgr. Falconi, not Falconi, is the Canadian apostolic delegate, residing at Ottawa, and is serving his third year.

GOT THE FULL AMOUNT.

In circuit court this morning Judge McLeod delivered his charge to the jury in Smith v. Dominion Assurance and Accident Company, and gave them a number of questions to answer. After being out some time they found for the plaintiff to the full extent of the amount asked, $1,350, with interest. Hon. Wm. Fugleby, K. C., for the plaintiff and Hon. H. A. McKeown, K. C. for the defendant.

B. J. JACOBS DEAD.

The Famous Sunday School Worker Passed Away Last Night.

CHICAGO, June 24.—Benjamin J. Jacobs, a pioneer real estate dealer of Chicago, who was known throughout the country as a leader in Sunday school work, and who was chairman of the executive committee of the National school organization, died last night. Mr. Jacobs was in his 68th year. He had been ill for some time and for several days his family had realized that the end was near. Mr. Jacobs had been chairman of the International Sunday School executive committee since 1891. In 1893 he was honored with the presidency of the world's second Sunday school convention.
