Third Appearance in Court.

TORONTO, April 14—Christopher A. Holland made his third appearance before Magistrate Denison yesterday in the police court. This time he was up in connection with a forgery case at St. Thomas in which he succeeded in obtaining $2,500. He admitted his guilt and was sentenced to serve five and a half years in the penitentiary, the sentence to run concurrently with that imposed upon him a few weeks ago when he was sent down for five years. His latest sentence means that he will have an additional six months to serve. The Dominion Express Company were the complainants and the information was sworn to by Private Detective

FREDERICTON, N. B., April 14.—
At Christ Church Cathedral this afternoon Miss Lenore Carleton Allen, daughter of T. Carleton Allen, clerk of the pleas, was unated in the bonds of matrimony to Alexander John Thompson, son of Hon. Senator Thompson.

The ceremony, which was fully choral, was performed by His Lordship Bishop Richardson, assisted by the Very Rev. Dean Schofield. The bride was given in marriage by her father. Mr. Leroy Shaw, of Montreal, performed the duties of best man, Miss Edith Edgecombe was maid of lionor, and Miss Katie Hazen, daughter of the premier, bridesmaid. The ushers were Ralph Sherman, Robt. McCunn and Fred Barbour.

The Cathedral was prettily decorated and as the bridal party entered the church the organist played he nuptial WINNIPEG, April 14—Surgeon Major Devine, D. S. O. medical officer at Fort Osborne, who was slated for transfer to the Halifax garrison to exchange with Dr. Vaux, who is at present stationed there, has resigned rather than go, and will retire from the service, Dr. Vaux, however, will come west at once.

Fred Barbour.

The Cathedral was prettily decorated and as the bridal party entered the church the organist played he nuptial march. The hymns consisted of "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden," and "Love Divine."

"Love Divine."

The bride was dressed in Liberty satin, in the empire style trimmed with Brussels lace, and wore a bridal veil and crange blossoms. The bridasmaid and maid of honor wore yellow satin directoire gowns with yellow and gold trimmings and fringe and hats to match, and carried bouquets of violets. Mrs. Allen, mother of the bride, was costumed in a brown princess gown of satin, with hat to match.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the bridal party was received at the MILWAUKEE, April 14—Shareholders of the Wisconsin Central Railway yesterday ratified the lease of the road to the C. P. R. This city will ultimately be one of the big terminal points of the Canadian Pacific Railroad. The Wisconsin Central Railroad now loses all identity except in its corporate name in legal affairs. Within a short time there will be considered plans for buildings to or through the city of Milwaukee. Headquarters of the Central in Chicago will be moved to Minneapolis. All good men will be retained in their present positions, or promoted.
