LOCAL NEWS

A. C. Smith & Co.'s offices will be closed on Saturday afternoon during the summer, beginning tomorrow.

You may not pay the highest price for your new suit if you go to C. B. Pidgeon, but you can feel sure of getting the best.

A very pleasant surprise was given Miss Jennie Nelson last evening at Benford, when a number of her friends gave her a kitchen shower in honor of a happy event which is shortly to take place. Music and dancing were indulged in and after a dainty luncheon was served, the merry party returned to the city.

Instead of the usual prayer meeting in Zion church this evening, Rev. Mr. Crisp will deliver a lecture on "The Life and Times of John Bunyan," with special reference to The Pilgrim's Progress. The lecture will be illustrated. During the course of the lecture a number of vocal and instrumental selections will be given.

Word was received here this morning that the Furness liner Almeria, which has been detained at Bay Bulls on account of ice had worked clear and was now on her way to Halifax. She was reported passing Cape Race at nine o'clock this morning and is due here early Saturday morning. —Halifax Echo.

Dr. Johnston, V. S., St. John, has been here this week examining the dairy herds of the county, whose owners ship to St. John. The inspection of premises and animals is required by the St. John Board of Health. Dr. Johnston has overlooked a large number of animals and reports the conditions good. —Sussex Record.

F. W. Hatheway, M. P. P., of St. John, made a tour of the county last week, being at Grand Falls Wednesday, arriving here Thursday evening, taking in the Acrostook Falls and power works en route. Friday morning, accompanied by John B. Stewart, he examined the Police Narrows and surroundings, going up that evening to Piaster Rock, returning here Saturday morning and leaving that afternoon for Hartland and Woodstock—Victoria Co. News.

At last evening's meeting of the School Board, a report was submitted, showing that of 319 pupils reported absent from the public schools of the city, because of conscientious objections of parents to vaccination, but 372 had returned since the conscientious scruples objection clause had been restored. It was shown 403 unvaccinated pupils were still absent, 15 had gone to work in private schools, 8 to the country, and 15 were waiting for the holidays before returning. —Halifax Echo.

The fifty-two Newfoundlanders quarantined in the shack at Whitney Pier, owing to one of their company having been taken down with smallpox, have had the ban raised and are all back to work again. The quarantine at MacRae house on the Esplanade was lifted yesterday. There is but one patient at the contagious disease hospital and he will be discharged next week. The smallpox has been completely eradicated from the city. —Sussex Record.

A correspondent of a St. John paper wants the Sussex train to run into St. John earlier in the morning. That would mean an earlier start from Sussex. At this end of the line 7 o'clock is regarded as quite early enough to start the train. The writer in the St. John paper wants the railway authorities to run the Sussex train earlier in order to make it more convenient for children who attend school. Possibly a better solution would be to keep the children in St. John until holiday time and allow the inhabitants in this part of the world to get in part of a night's rest before catching the Sussex train. —Sussex Record.

Many complaints are being made that Sunday fishing is being carried on in the Penobscot district to an alarming extent. Parties of decoy hunters of the Lord's Day arrive every Saturday night from St. John and other places and spend the Sabbath whipping the streams and often in drunken wantonness, destroying fences and other valuable property. It is surely time that the farmers united in posting up notices and putting a stop to this lawless and law-breaking trade. If one or two were arrested for violating the law, it would be a warning to the others. It is rumored that one party intends to arrest the next Sunday fishermen he sees and let the law take its full course. —Sussex Record.

Under the will of the late Ella J. Fraser of Halifax, which was probated today, the following bequests were made:—The sum of $250 was set apart in trust, the income to be paid to her mother for life and the principal ultimately to be divided equally between her two sisters, Mrs. Harris G. Penney and Miss E. B. Hunter. A special bequest of $500 is left to her sister, Miss E. B. Hunter, and a like sum to the Halifax School for the Blind. The balance of the estate goes to her husband, who is the residuary legatee. The estate is appraised at $829. Dr. C. F. Fraser is appointed sole executor under the will, which is dated January, 1901. —Recorder.

The long standing dispute between the lobster fishermen and packers of Little Bras d'Or and surrounding districts has been settled. The factories have been opened and operations are now in full swing. For the past several days fishermen have been hurrying out traps in order to make up for time lost, but scarcely any progress has been made in fishing on account of the high winds and heavy sea running during the past week. It is understood that the fishermen have accepted the price offered by the packers, $2.15 per hundred weight, and have been promised that should prices rise in the markets abroad an increase will be given the fishermen.

EXMOUTH ST. CHURCH HAD A PROSPEROUS YEAR

Finances in Good Shape, and Membership Increased—Appreciation of Rev. Mr. Howard's Work

The fourth regular meeting of the quarterly official boards of Exmouth Street Methodist Church was held last evening. As this was in a sense the annual meeting, reports of the year's work were received and showed that the church has continued in the flourishing condition in which it has been for a good many years. More than this, there has been a marked advance along several lines. The Sunday School, the Epworth League and the Y. M. C. A. all report increases in membership and in their financial receipts. The Sunday school including the cradle roll, has now an enrollment of 450 with an average attendance throughout the year of 300. In the church last year twenty-eight members were removed by death and other causes, and thirty-three new members were added, leaving a net increase of five, the total membership now being 377. The finances of the church in all departments were found satisfactory. The Women's Society has raised in the vicinity of $200 for missions, which is $89 more than last year. The contributions from the men are not yet totalled, but will it is expected, considerably exceed of any previous year. In addition to this, the congregation raised upwards of $100 for work on the church which included stained glass windows, new carpets and improvement in the heating plant. The meeting last evening passed a hearty resolution of appreciation of the work done by the pastor, Rev. Samuel Howard, and expressed gratification at the eminently satisfactory state of the church. The stewards were all re-elected. Mr. George Green continuing as recording steward.

SUDDEN DEATH OF SAMUEL ROBINSON

Stricken With Heart Disease, He Fell Dead at His Summer Residence Last Night

The sudden death of Mr. Samuel Robinson occurred last evening at his summer residence at Falmouth. Mr. Robinson was in his usual health yesterday and had been at work as usual. He went out on the five o'clock train after supper he went out to see Mr. Brown, a neighbor. On his return he ran up stairs and came down, started out again. He came back shortly complaining of cramps. His wife gave him some ginger tea, but while he was drinking it the glass fell from his hand and he fell forward senseless.

Dr. J. H. Manning, J. H. McRobbie, and Jas. Hamilton, who all live near, were hastily summoned and did all they could but could not detect any signs of life. A message failed to locate Dr. Arnold, of Wolford, so Dr. Curran was summoned from Fairville. On examination he pronounced death to have been due to heart failure, following too violent exertion. The deceased was 74 years of age. He is survived by his widow, formerly Miss Russell, one daughter, and three sons. The latter are: Mrs. L. G. Hill, John E. and Jas. M., of British Columbia, and Roy, living at home. He was a son of the late Rev. Samuel Robinson and has resided in St. John all his life. In 1871 he has been connected with the Custom House staff in the capacity of gauger. Previous to that time he was in charge of a saw mill at West St. John. Mr. Robinson was widely known and will be greatly missed. His family have the deepest sympathy of their many friends in their sad bereavement.

THE N. B. TEAM FOR THE INTER-PROVINCIAL MATCH

Three Substitutes Replace Members of Original Team—Local Match Tomorrow.

The New Brunswick team for the Inter-Provincial rifle match, which will be shot at Halifax next Thursday, is as follows:—Sergeant J. G. Sullivan, Capt. W. E. Forster, Major G. W. Wetmore, Capt. J. S. Frost, Sergeant J. F. Archibald, Sergeant E. F. Glavin, Major H. Perley and Lieut. D. B. Chandler. Of the team as originally selected, Major S. B. Anderson, Capt. E. A. Smith, and Pte. H. H. Bartlett were unable to go and were replaced by Sergeants Archibald and Glavin and Major Perley.

For the first time in the history of the match it will be shot on McNab's Island, instead of at the Bedford ranges as in other years.

The 62nd Regt. Rifle Association will hold a spoon match on the local range tomorrow afternoon, weather permitting. About two hundred people assembled last evening at the First Baptist parsonage to extend a farewell to Rev. Mr. Dockrell and Mrs. Dockrell. The reverend gentleman and his wife, who had been at the home of some friends, were completely taken by surprise to find such a large number of friends awaiting their return. The friends had assembled, not only to extend a farewell, but to give a tangible expression of their esteem and good will. C. W. Fairweather, during the evening read an address. The address was accompanied with a purse of gold, amounting to over one hundred and fifty dollars, which was presented by G. B. Lutz, who also expressed appreciation of the work of the retiring pastor. —Transcript.
