NOT CONFIRMED.

TORONTO, Jan. 7.—The Telegram's special cable from London says: The report current in Canada that four Canadians had been awarded the Victoria Cross for distinguished bravery in South Africa does not receive confirmation here. The military secretary at the war office says no awards have been made to Canadians since Pte. Lindsey Richardson of the Mounted Rifles was decorated several months ago. The foundation for the story that four Canadians were to receive the Victoria Cross was received at Quebec. It stated that Lieut, R. E. W. Turner, Quebec; Lieut. H. Z. C. Cockburn, Toronto; Sergt. E. J. Holland, Ottawa, and Pte. W. A. Hensley, Haldimand Rifles, had been recommended for decoration for heroic deeds on the battle-field.
