ST. JOHN AND WOODSTOCK
TOMORROW

The next local league game will be between the St. John's and Woodstock teams on the morning of tomorrow afternoon and it is expected to be a hummer. The Woodstock team, which was advertised by correspondence from that town as world beaters, did not prove fast enough for the Marathons on Saturday, and the prevailing opinion is that the St. John's should take them into camp tomorrow. The way the St. John's are coming along and the determination of Manager Page to mould his team into a winning aggregation will furnish a big surprise to the fans in the near future. When the team appears on the diamond tomorrow it will contain some new faces. Owing to the slow recovery of Pinkerton and Mulvey from their injuries Manager Page has found it necessary to sign a new short stop and has secured a new pitcher. Frank Downer of Burlington, Vt. Downer has the reputation of being a fast infielder and a good man at the bat. Pat McAuley who will play third base for the team will also make his appearance tomorrow afternoon. Urquhart will be on the mound for Woodstock and as he is said to be a better pitcher than the much advertised Mr. Moser, who got his bumps Saturday, the game should be interesting.

Marathons, 9; Woodstock, 0.

On Saturday afternoon on the Marathons grounds over three thousand people witnessed one of the most interesting and exciting games played this season, when with but one man out on the Woodstock team in the ninth inning, the St. John's team called a kick. While the game goes to the Marathons by a score of 9 to 0.

For a bunch of unreasonable kickers the Woodstock team took a bouquet for the season. Some of the players were not only with a kick but they backed it up with insulting language.

A game that had been heralded about the province about the new Woodstock pitcher named Moser and he has been booted by the Woodstock team as being a Boston American league wonder. He arrived in the city on Saturday. In fact many of the local fans and outsiders expected the game and awarded it to the Marathons by a score of 9 to 0.

In fact Moser was one of the disappointed persons as there was no time in the game but that the Greeks had the best of the battle. When they started to bat the wonder and pitcher named Moser showed his displeasure by kicking and others in the team followed suit, and there were several delays as a result of the kicking. The Woodstock men found fault with Marathons players, and with the umpire's decisions, and so often did these delays occur that finally the large crowd took sides against the visiting players.

Evans is without a doubt the best umpire seen on a local diamond, and he knows the game from the start to the finish. His decisions are upheld by the fans, as he shows no favoritism to any team and will not stand for wrong doing by any of the players. He was the official umpire in the Saturday's game, and he had his work cut out for him through the manner in which the visiting players made matters unpleasant.

At the end of the eighth inning the score stood 6 to 2 in favor of the Marathons; and as the Woodstock players came into bat in the ninth inning, Keane, the shortstop, took occasion to walk up to the umpire and say, "You're running this whole game, and you're a bum." Umpire Evans turned to the player and said, "What was that you called me?" Keane replied, "I said that you were a bum." "Well," said Evans, "you can get out of the game and out of the grounds." Keane refused to leave the grounds, and a policeman was called to eject him, but refused. One of the players then moved off the bench and it was thought that he was Keane, and the ninth inning was started. The first man to bat fled out to left field. Keane had not left the grounds, however, nor did he walk up and down in front of the bench stating that if the policeman took hold of him he would handle the blue coat like a football.

Some persons in the stand called out that Keane had not left the grounds. When Evans saw that such was the case he again ordered him to leave and on his refusal to do so again the umpire waited but a short time and then addressed the audience saying that he called the game and forfeited it to the Marathons by a score of nine to nothing. The action of the umpire was perfectly correct and was cheered by the fans. It was said after the game by some of the spectators that if Keane had been ejected by the police officer further trouble would have been avoided. Keane is a good ball player, but his action of Saturday placed him in a bad light with the lovers of clean baseball, as many certainly have known that all players have to obey the orders of the official umpire. Keane should have left the field when ordered to do so. It was only a few weeks ago that this same Keane caught hold of Ed. Ramsey and threw him to the ground while the St. John's captain was running from second to third. It is said that on Saturday afternoon he even refused to leave the grounds when requested to by Manager Allen of the Woodstock team and if there is a club rule for a fine against such players the Woodstock shortstop should have one handed out to him.

Moser was found for eleven safe hits. He passed three men on bases on balls and made a wild pitch. Fryer, the Marathons' new second baseman, led in the hitting, having two singles and a two bagger.

Sweet was in the box for the Marathons and he pitched a good steady game. He was found for ten hits, one being a two bagger, he struck out five men, the same number as Moser, and gave one base on ball.

The Marathons players all showed up well. Fryer, Riley and Nelson were the stars of the game. Nelson, who was behind the bat after several weeks absence from that position, was in particularly good form.

The Woodstock men went to bat first and were retired quickly.

Winter opened for the Greeks by drawing a base on balls and advanced a bag on Williams' hitting out to pitcher. Fryer singled to left field and went to second on the throw while Winter scored. McGarey followed with a hit to centre field and Fryer scored. Nelson followed with a single to centre and McGarey was caught out at the plate. Riley hit out to pitcher and retired the side.

The teams were bunched in the second inning. In the third inning Woodstock got their only two runs and tied the score. With one man out Black singled to right field. Wilder fled out. Keane hit safe. O'Donnell followed with a two base hit to centre scoring Black and Keane. Allen hit out to Williams on third and the side retired.

For the next five innings the Woodstock men got only four men as far as second base. One of these was Moser who, in the fifth inning, tried to score on Wilder's hit to centre, but was caught at the plate by a beautiful throw in from centre field by Riley.

In the fourth inning a base on balls sacrifice and a single allowed McGarey to score the third run for the Marathons.

Winter scored the fourth run in the fifth inning. He drew a base on balls, went to third on Williams' single to right and scored when O'Donnell dropped the ball at the plate.

The Marathons made two more runs in the seventh inning. Three singles, a sacrifice, a wild pitch and an error by Keane, all short, being responsible. There was no further scoring and the game was called in the ninth inning. The Woodstock team were fairly beaten, and they have no chance of a kick. While the game goes to the Marathons by a score of 9 to 0 as to the ruling of the umpire, the following score of the game as played to the time it was called, will show the work of the players:

Special To The Standard.

Calais, Me., Aug. 6.—Manager Hyslop's aggregation won the St. John's team on the St. Stephen diamond Saturday afternoon by a score of five to three. The game was noted for fast playing and fine-throwing stunts by Dee, Malley, Hurley, Callahan, A. Finemore, Sabourin and Ramsey.

The visitors had a bad second inning when a walk, double and four errors were responsible for three of the four runs scored by St. Stephen.

The fifth game near being a repeat when the locals filled the bases with only one out. Paquet shoved the stuff that was in him by pulling out of a big hole with one run.

Callahan's double and an error divided between Dee and Malley was responsible for a score in the second. In the fourth Callahan's single and stole base, Swain's pass, White's sacrifice and Paquet's single brought two runs for the visitors.

An error, a single and two sacrifices tallied a run for the locals in the fifth. After this inning both pitchers tightened up and with the players getting away from errors they finished in whirlwind style pulling off some sensational stunts that pleased the excited fans. Martin of New Bedford was on the mound and is the St. Stephen manager's new find. The box score is as follows:

SATURDAY'S
FAIRLY GOOD

The races at Moosepath on Saturday afternoon drew a fairly large crowd, about nine hundred being in attendance. The races proved exciting at times and there were a few bright spots, but as a whole they were not of the half-raising variety.

The honors of the day went to Masterpiece (M. V. Douse, Attelboro, Mass.) in the 2:17 trot and 2:20 pace. In the Free-for-all, Gallagher (L. R. Acker, Halifax) took first money in the trot and pace event, second money went to Pearl Baronmore (H. Tamlyn, Sussex), third money to Idle Moments (F. Duncan, Fairville).

Frank Power (Boutillier, Halifax, taking fourth. In the Free-for-all, Charley King (R. R. Ridout, Medford, Mass.), Frank Patch (James Adams, Halifax), and Thoughtful (M. V. Douse, Attelboro, Mass.), won second, third and fourth money respectively.

Both the winners in the two events took the three heats of their events. Gallagher appeared to have it comparatively easy in the Free-for-all. In the first heat he romped away from the crowd shortly after the signal and left Charley King and the others to fill the ranks. Pearl Baronmore crossing the line a few feet in advance of Charley eventually captured.

The second heat went to Gallagher, with Thoughtful and Charley King in second and third place respectively. Gallagher took first in the final heat and Charley King and Thoughtful again landed second and third. The best time of the day was made by Gallagher in the second heat of the Free-for-all, the mile being 2:20 flat.

Masterpiece won the three heats of the trot and pace. In the third heat of the race, considerable time was lost in getting away. The sulky drawn by Masterpiece collapsed during a tangle start, but fortunately the horse had not developed great speed and an accident to the driver was averted.

This event was marked by a number of good brushes, and the fight for second and third positions was a good one. At times it was a neck and neck struggle for honors and in the final heat it was nip and tuck up to the finish. Pearl Baronmore crossing the line a few feet in advance of Idle Moments.

The summaries—
