Uncle Dick's Corner. Who's Who and What's What in the Picture World and on the Stage--Favorites and What They Say and Do.

MARGUERITE'S WEEKLY CHAT ON CONVERSATION.

In the days of our great-grandfathers people used to converse, not chat or even talk. It was a serious study and they gave time and thought to the subjects upon which they wished to discuss.

Fruit Cakes For Soldiers.

The women and men of Ottawa have been asked to contribute fruit cakes for the soldiers at the front, particularly for the Canadian soldiers.

Government departments are unusually credited with the possession of delicate tact.

Government departments are unusually credited with the possession of delicate tact. Wherefore it is only fair to give them full credit on occasion.

Crochet Buttonhole.

The practical uses to which crochet may be applied seem to be endless. Buttonholes in heavy linen or any material where a strong buttonhole is required can be worked by means of crochet.

Black Mole Spats.

Spats of striped and checked silk are really gaining a certain hold and the latest development of this fancy garter idea is of black moire, which is quite smart when worn with summer cloth suits.

A Nice Toilet Powder.

A delicate toilet powder for the body is made by mixing two packages of violet rice powder, 4 grains of powdered rose, 5 drops of sandal oil and 2 ounces of powdered orris.

Cool for hot days is this white voile model, the full skirt of which is banded with a color. The waist has a peplum and a girde of color to match the bands makes a finish any clever woman can design.

TODAY'S LITTLE JOKE.

Smart Eh? Harry—"I did a clever trick last night when mamma came into the bedroom in the dark."

Birthday Greetings.

Uncle Dick wishes many happy returns to the following kiddies who will be celebrating their birthdays today.

Rain Caught Papa's Napping.

Dear Uncle Dick: Please forgive me for not writing to you before, but I have been picking strawberries, visiting and helping papa.

Woodstock, N. B.

I saw your sun contest in the Corner and I thought I would try and win one of the prizes which you are offering.

Enjoying Her Meetings.

Dear Uncle Dick: I think it is about time I was sending you a few lines again. I am well and enjoying my holidays.

From Amherst Kiddie.

Dear Uncle Dick: I have been enjoying the Corner for a long time, and I should like to become a member.

The Police Court.

In the police court yesterday morning evidence was taken in the case of Donald Sharpe, charged with drunkenness and obtaining money under false pretenses from John Beggs.

Children Lose Friend in James Whitcomb Riley.

In the death of the poet James Whitcomb Riley children have lost an interpreter that will be difficult to replace.

From An English Boy.

Dear Uncle Dick: I thought I would try the sun contest. I hope I will win a prize this time.

Dear Uncle Dick:

I never in the wide world expected to get the prize. I almost fainted when the Standard was handed to me by Edith. I had a caller at the time and in my excitement completely forgot him.

OPERA HOUSE.

The programme at the Opera House yesterday was a varied one and acceptable to those who do not care for the heavier dramas.

Little Fox Star.

With Mme. Semblich as a god-mother, and Enrico Caruso and Antonio Scotti as intimate friends, Lizzie Violeto de Bacari's ambition to eventually become a great prima donna bid fair to be accomplished.

A Joke on Eric.

During the filming of one of the scenes of "The Fireman," second of the Chaplin comedies, released by the Mutual Film Corporation, it fell to the lot of Eric Campbell, the "heavy" with the wild-like mustache, to be covered from head to foot in a mixture of various ingredients, which, to say the least, did not add to Campbell's reputed good looks.

MR. POTASH LIKES PICTURES.

The most contented-looking individual around the busy Vitagraph studios these days is Barney Barnard of "Potash and Perimeter" fame.

UNIQUE.

"The Reward." Miss Bessie Barriscale has in "The Reward" the kind of a story which suits her appealing, innocent style.

IMPERIAL.

"The Dust of Egypt." "The Dust" resolved itself into Edith Storey as "Amneset," a beautiful princess of Egypt who had been having a sleep of a thousand years.

Dear Uncle Dick:

I never in the wide world expected to get the prize. I almost fainted when the Standard was handed to me by Edith. I had a caller at the time and in my excitement completely forgot him.

well done and her regal rages like sudden storms out of a clear sky.

The play is full of comedy, a portly footman supplying a large part of it (Hughie Mack). One wonderfully pictured part is on a barge such as Cleopatra had (according to Shakespeare). A clever little bit is where Amneset looks through Mr. Manning's glasses.

Helene Rosson has just completed her first year with the American Company.

James Young, one of the best known directors in the motion picture industry, has resumed work at the Lasky studios, Hollywood, California, and will devote himself exclusively in the future.

Concert in Aid of Red Cross.

The concert which is to be held in the Opera House August 2nd will have many attractions. It is under the auspices of the Field Ambulance unit and as this is their first public endeavor, they should be given the support of the public.
