THE SURVEYORS' STRIKE.

Statements of Shippers and Surveyors Relative to the Matter.

The strike matter spoken of yesterday morning by The Telegraph, caused quite a stir along the harbor front. At the time to go to work the organized surveyors empkyed by Messrs. Moore and Mackay did not put in an appearance, and commenced the strike. Other men were hired in these sheets in their places.

Mr. Jarvis Wilson, of Mr. W. M. Mackay's firm, said last night that the or ganized surveyors with their strike did not interfere with the loading of vessels in the least. When the old hands did not show up new surveyors were given work. Two of these, who were supposed to have gone on strike, returned to work vesterday morning. Steamers in the har bor and sailing vessels at the mills, said Mr. Wilson, were being worked as usual and there was no time lost. The new men put to work were doing well and Mr. Wilson says that now, should the old employment, they will not get it, as those hired yesterday will not be discharged. Mr. Moore's shipments are being placed on board vessels as usual, under the surveying of other hands than those of the organization.

The surveyors state that William Thomson & Sons, agents of the Malir

Head, are paying seven cents per thou-sand for a licensed surveyor to do check-ing in the interest of the steamer, while for the control of the turners, they say, is in the interest of all concerned, as the surveyors are desirious of having men of reliability.

The question of remuneration which the shippers say is good, the surveyors admit.

ON A SERIOUS CHARGE.

Police on Look Out for Man Charged with Assaulting Young Girl.

William Cameron, who has been charged with a serious assault on a 14-year-old girl The police officials are very careful about giving out any information regarding the affair as Cameron was about the city yesterday morning, but could not be found during the afternoon or last night. The trains and other places leading from the city have been closely guarded by the police.

Cameron is a seemingly quiet man of about 45 years of age, about 5 feet 8 inches tall, weighs about 180 pounds and generally wears a soft hat. He has been given the reputation of being an admirer of young girls whom, it is said, he would entice into a small store of which he was the proprietor. He is a well-known person about the city and has lately boarded in a Dorchester street boarding house, but before the Indiantown fire resided in the northern section of the city.

It could not be learned last night just where or when the dastardly act was committed by Cameron, but it is supposed to have been either Tuesday night or yesterday morning. A man named McLean, who has been very friendly with Cameron, left the city on yesterday's Pacific express for the west. affair as Cameron was about the city yester-

Truly a Gallant Act.

An incident that was remarkable rather for its moral depravity than for any amount of damage, occurred last evening. Its perpetrators were young men, whose manlines and regard for those weaker than themselves was not visible. The subpect of their attention was a widow, Mrs. Devine, enfeebled and old, who lives in the lower flat of No. 68 Paradise Row-About 9 o'clock last evening, a squad or so of these chivalrous youths were walking by a front window of the flat, and, as they passed, glanced at it. The blind was partly drawn, which fact seemed to annoy one of the party, who stepped forward and the next instant thrust his elbow through three successive panes of glass. Then, with great gallantry and agility, all engaged in the enterprise fled swiftly up the street loudly calogizing each other for his part in the splendid achievement.
