The McGinley Horse Lottery.

To the Editor of the Tribune. I have read the article in last night's closed at 4 o'clock. The following is the issue of your paper relating to the "Mc-result of the contest: Ginley Horse Lottery," and in justice to Mr. McGinley I would say that I was present when the agreement about the Archibald Rowan, ticket was entered into between McGinley and McCormick, and that I am pepared and McCormick, and that I am pepared at any time to swear that the statements contained in the letter of "Fair Play" are utterly false, and that the account given by Mr. McGinley himself is true in every particular. By publishing the above you will do justice to Mr. McGinley and oblige yours truly,
