

MONTRÉAL LAKE SECTION—
Ample hay everywhere	43
Considerable body of timber	43
First-class garden on Deer Lake	43
Land good around Deer Lake	43
Map of section	44
Soil at Deer Lake a good light loam	43
	28
MONTRÉAL RIVER— (Estimates of heights of rapids on
MOOSE
Moose and Cariboo plentiful in La Lache Lake section.	36
Moose are still plentiful.	22
Moose is found almost all over the tract.	69
Waterhen Lake tract is famous as a moose country	73
MAIGRE (Michael Le) — Settler at Whitefish Lake	65
MORASTY (Baptiste) — Settler at Sled Lake	30
MORIN (Cyprian) — Settler in Meadow Lake section	75
MUSKRAT — Muskrat extremely numerous	71
NATURAL GAS
A. W. Fraser, report on gas at Athabasca Landing	63, 64
Principal points where gas has been determined in Northern Alberta	63
R. G. McConnell, report on gas on Little Buffalo River	63
Regulations for acquisition, etc., . . . . .	See Appendix
William Ogilvie, D.L.S., report on natural gas on Athabasca River	63
OATS and BARLEY grown at Portage La Loche (Lat. 56° 35' 11")	16
OATS and VEGETABLES grown successfully at Sled Lake (Green Lake Section)	30
OBJECT OF EXPLORATION
	15
OGILVIE (William), D.L.S.—Report on Natural Gas on the Athabasca River	63
Report on water power	69
OLD CANOE ROUTE , by Portage La Loche	19
PARTRIDGE — See "Animal Life"	22
PEMBINA RIVER — Fine hay meadows	68
PERCH (or Doré) — Found in most rivers and lakes	72
PETROLEUM
Contract for boring for petroleum at Athabasca River in 1891, . . . . .	63, 64
Dr. Bell on petroleum, . . . . .	61, 62
Experiments in treating of oil shale, . . . . .	62
Regulations for acquisition, . . . . .	See Appendix
PIKE or JACKFISH —Plentiful	21, 71
PONTON (A. W.), D.L.S.—Reports outcrop of tar-sand near 5th Meridian	60
POPLAR — Principal growth, indicates good land	25
POPLAR , ASPEN , or WHITE POPLAR —(Value and description of)	66
PORTAGE LA LOCHE	36-38
PREBLE (E.), Asst. Director U. S. Biological Survey, on Doré (pickerel)	24
PROSPECTORS — Should endeavor to prevent forest fires, . . . . .	25
RAILWAY to McMurray from Edmonton being surveyed, . . . . .	58
RAINFALL — Ample, and its uniformity a valuable feature, . . . . .	21