

PRESS NOTICES.

"Our Boys Under Fire". . . While the author's chief object is to give the story of Company G from the date of their enlistment to their return, yet at the same time an outline is given of the whole war and especially of the Canadians' share in what was achieved. The narrative is enlivened by incidents, adventures and pleasing descriptions, and through it all breathes the spirit of love for Canada and the Empire.—Montreal Witness.

Friends of the N. B. and P. E. Island Contingent will find "Our Boys Under Fire" especially interesting as Christmas gifts to friends at a distance, as it gives prominence to the doings of our own boys.—St. John Sun.

Miss Mellish carries along her narrative in an easy and flowing style, and her work makes an excellent record both general and personal.—St. John Globe.

The work is sketched so vividly and broadly as to be of general interest to all. Its whole tone and method are both admirable.—Wesleyan, Halifax.

A great deal of valuable information is given in a bright racy manner.—Chronicle, Halifax, N. S.

For interesting reading and a valuable souvenir we can highly recommend "Our Boys Under Fire."—Herald, Halifax.

The book is well gotten up, entailed careful study and the author has followed the war closely from the departure of the boys to their return.—Moncton Transcript.

This Brochure describes the career of the First Canadian Contingent with special and marked reference to the N. B. and P. E. Island volunteers.—Sentinel, Woodstock.

The book may be regarded as a history of the experiences of the N. B. and P. E. Island boys on active service and every one who desires a really valuable souvenir of the war should not fail to get a copy.—Post, Sackville, N. B.

The graphic way Miss Mellish tells her story may be partially accounted for by the fact that her brother, Lieut. Mellish has written her many letters from the front.—Dispatch, Woodstock, N. B.

The whole work is well executed, well written in clear pleasing style and is highly creditable to the authoress.—Patriot, Charlottetown, P. E. I.

The book is highly creditable to the fair young authoress and the more especially so as it is her first book. We rest assured that it will not be her last. Besides the forty-two illustrations are the names of every officer and man of the Canadian force and the complete casualty list.—Guardian, Charlottetown, P. E. I.

Miss Mellish has compressed into 122 pages of her vividly written and interesting book a surprising amount of information valuable to all who are interested in the war in South Africa.—Examiner, Charlottetown, P. E. I.

One of the most valuable books that has been written on the war is "Our Boys Under Fire." The author has given us an interesting, accurate and graphic account of the First Canadian Contingent.—Acadian, Wolfville, N.S.
