

QUESTIONS NEGATIVED—Continued:

23. For referring the petition of Joseph Légaré and others, of Quebec, relative to the Québec Fire Debentures (excepting that part which relates to public moneys) to a Select Committee, 131.

24. For referring the petition of Matthew Bostwick, relative to a certain Custom House seizure at Quebec, to a Select Committee, 145.

25. For referring the Correspondence relative to the dismissal of Wm. Ireland, Esq. from his situation on the Kingston and Napanee Road, to a Select Committee, 146.

26. That the Committee of the whole on the Bill to regulate the construction of aprons to mill-dams, have leave to sit again, 148.

27. That Mr. Robinson be added to the Committee on Railroad and Telegraph Line Bills; Superseded by amendment, 152.—Again, 184.

28. That the Bill to amend the laws concerning the Interest of Money, be read a second time; Superseded by amendment, 154.

29. For referring that part of the petition of Joseph Smolinski (respecting Calorifers) which has not been taken into consideration by the Committee on Contingencies, to a Select Committee, 164.

30. That the inhabitants of Lower Canada were not constitutionally consulted with respect to the passing of the Union Act, which contains many provisions contrary to justice, &c., 168.

31. That among the provisions in the Union Act contrary to justice is that which establishes an equal number of Representatives for Upper and Lower Canada, without reference to population, 168.

32. That in order better to apportion the Representation of the People in Parliament, it is expedient that another census be taken, 169.

33. That the petition of John Holmes and others, for the adoption of measures for obtaining the repeal of the Imperial Act relating to the Clergy Reserves, be referred to a Select Committee; Superseded by "Previous Question," 174.

34. That the Bill to repeal the laws relating to Winter Roads in Lower Canada, be read a second time; Superseded by amendment, 176.

35. For a Committee of the whole to consider of addressing Her Majesty and the other branches of the Imperial Parliament, upon the propriety of amending the Union Act in certain particulars, 180.

36. That the Committee on the Prescott Controverted Election, be permitted to examine additional witnesses on the part of the petitioner, 189.

37. For leave to bring in a Bill to authorize the issuing of Writs of Election to certain Constituencies to return additional Members to Parliament, 192.

38. That the Order for the House in Committee on the Montreal and Troy Telegraph Bill, be now read, 195.

39. For an Address to His Excellency for copies of all Petitions, Resolutions, and Addresses, received by His Excellency, on the subject of the Rebellion Losses in Lower Canada, 200.

40. That the Committee of the whole on the Bill to alter the law relating to the limitation of actions, have leave to sit again, 202.

41. That the Bill to extend the remedy by writs of execution, be now read the second time; Superseded by amendment, 202.

42. For leave to bring in a Bill to provide that actions of account for Fees of office may be tried by Jury, and according to the laws of England, 212.

43. That the Order of the day for the second reading of the Great Western Railroad Bill, be now taken up, 214.

QUESTIONS NEGATIVED—Continued:

44. That the Bill (from the Council) to protect the property of persons dying intestate in Upper Canada, be read a second time; Superseded by amendment, 214.

45. That the Bill to limit the number of Executive functionaries, be read a second time; Superseded by amendment, 219.

46. That the Bill to authorize defendants to make full defence in Actions on foreign judgments, be read a second time; Superseded by amendment, 220.

47. For leave to bring in a Bill to form a new County out of parts of the Counties of Waterloo, Halton, and Oxford, 233.

48. That the Bill to prevent mill-owners from restraining the natural flow of streams in Upper Canada, be read a second time; Superseded by amendment, 233.

49. That the Bill to provide for the erection of certain new Counties and Townships in Upper Canada, be read a second time; Superseded by amendment, 249.

50. For referring the petition of Thomas Corcoran, complaining of injustice in regard to a timber licence, to a Select Committee, 253.

51. For a Committee of the whole, to consider of Addressing Her Majesty, praying Her not to sanction the imposition of any additional duty upon Canadian Timber imported into Great Britain, 254.

52. That the Bill to divide the London District be read a second time; Superseded by amendment, 256.

53. That the Bill to erect a certain territory in Upper Canada into a new County by the name of Grey, be read a second time; Superseded by amendment, 257.

54. For referring the petition of William Evans and his sons, for compensation for damages caused by the construction of the Lachine Canal, to a Select Committee, 257.

55. That the Bill to encourage Ship-building in Lower Canada, do pass; Superseded by amendment, 300.

56. That John Miller, Deputy Returning Officer for Holland, at the last Election for Waterloo, is guilty, by his conduct at the said Election, of a breach of the privileges of the House; and that he wilfully evaded the service of the summons issued against him, in contempt of the House; Superseded by amendment, 292.

57. For appointment of a Select Committee, to inquire and report whether certain Addresses and Petitions to His Excellency, printed in the Gazette, are paid for out of the public funds, 302.

58. For an Address to His Excellency, for a copy of the Commission of the Solicitor General for Lower Canada, 302.

59. For appointment of a Select Committee, to make sundry inquiries relative to a delivery of arms to any part of the population during the last fortnight; and relative to the selection of any magistrates or peace officers to preserve the public peace, and as to any particular directions for their guidance, &c., 302.

60. That, in the opinion of the House, some one central city or town should be selected as the permanent Seat of Government, 318. (Several other motions upon the same subject.—Vide Addresses, 68.)

61. For referring the Report of the Commissioners of Public Works, to a Select Committee, 323.

62. For referring the petition of Donald Cameron, praying that he and his followers may have the deeds issued to them for the lands settled by them in Thorah, to a Select Committee, 324.

63. That the Bill to make more effectual provision for the distribution of the effects of Bankrupts, be read a second time; Superseded by amendment, 330.