

Fisheries (North America).

Crafts, so long as the Privilege of navigating the River St. Lawrence, secured to American Citizens by the above Clause of the present Article, shall continue; and the Government of the United States further engages to urge upon the State Governments to secure to the Subjects of Her Britannic Majesty the Use of the several State Canals on Terms of Equality with the Inhabitants of the United States.

And it is further agreed, that no Export Duty or other Duty shall be levied on Lumber or Timber of any Kind cut on that Portion of the American Territory in the State of Maine watered by the River St. John and its Tributaries, and floated down that River to the Sea, when the same is shipped to the United States from the Province of New Brunswick.

ARTICLE V.—The present Treaty shall take effect as soon as the Laws required to carry it into operation shall have been passed by the Imperial Parliament of Great Britain and by the Provincial Parliaments of those of the British North American Colonies which are affected by this Treaty on the one Hand, and by the Congress of the United States on the other. Such Assent having been given, the Treaty shall remain in force for Ten Years from the Date at which it may come into operation, and further until the Expiration of Twelve Months after either of the High Contracting Parties shall give Notice to the other of its Wish to terminate the same; each of the High Contracting Parties being at liberty to give such Notice to the other at the End of the said Term of Ten Years, or at any Time afterwards.

It is clearly understood, however, that this Stipulation is not intended to affect the Reservation made by Article IV. of the present Treaty with regard to the Right of temporarily suspending the Operation of Articles III. and IV. thereof.

ARTICLE VI.—And it is hereby further agreed, that the Provisions and Stipulations of the foregoing Articles shall extend to the Island of Newfoundland, so far as they are applicable to that Colony. But if the Imperial Parliament, the Provincial Parliament of Newfoundland, or the Congress of the United States, shall not embrace, in their Laws enacted for carrying this Treaty into effect, the Colony of Newfoundland, then this Article shall be of no Effect; but the Omission to make Provision by Law to give it Effect, by either of the Legislative Bodies aforesaid, shall not in any way impair the remaining Articles of this Treaty.

And whereas the said Treaty was ratified between Her said Majesty and the United States, and such Ratification was exchanged on the Ninth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four: And whereas in pursuance of the said Treaty the Senate and House
