

LUV  Hello. I'm your Math 285 instructor. No smoking and we'll get on with the course. For an introductory exam we'll...	 Hi! Welcome to the world of English literature. My name is Professor Prosaic...	 They love me, they love me not... by F.A. Kowalik
---	--	---

Today marks the debut of a new student at the U of A, LUV. LUV being neither male or female, but the shadow of a flower child, will experience this university in the Arts Pages of this newspaper. Keep watching.

LEFTOVERS

AL PURDY—Canadian poet Al Purdy, who edited The New Romans (see this week's review), will be on campus Saturday in Room at the Top. He will read from The New Romans, and his own material. The session starts at three p.m. It should be interesting, since Purdy is not a poet-god from the east.

• • •

Barry Rekord's theory of the "PIG CULTURE" seems to be producing irrefutable evidence of its validity. All you piggies who do not bother to clean your tables in the cafeteria should take note: The staff who operate the cafeteria are tolerant people, even if their food may indicate less. They have politely complained about this problem. The next time they may call for the pork butcher.

ON CAMPUS!

AKBAR ABDUL-HAQQ Ph.D.

Young people today are searching for answers. Students say, "We don't know what to believe. We have had so much thrown at us, we don't know what to make of it." So they come, they listen, they discuss. We take every opportunity to present Jesus Christ. And we have found our greatest response in North America to be on the campus.

Akbar Abdul-Haqq, with his unusual orientation and intellectual disciplines, is exceptionally qualified to speak in the centres of learning of this country as well as abroad. Every college and university student should hear his cogent presentation of the Christian message for the educated and inquiring mind.

BILLY GRAHAM

SUBJECTS

Predicaments Of Our Age and The Gospel

Transformation - The Destiny of Man

Where Are You Going?

The True Morality That We Need

HEAR DR. AKBAR ABDUL-HAQQ

IN A
LECTURE SERIES

5:00-5:45 P.M. Monday through Thursday
September 23rd-26th

SUB THEATRE

Also Hear Dr. Leighton Ford on Tuesday, Sept. 24
12:30 p.m. SUB THEATRE

AKBAR ABDUL-HAQQ

B.A. (with honors in Philosophy) University of the Punjab, India

M.A., (Philosophy), University of the Punjab

M.A., (Oriental Languages), University of the Punjab

Ph.D., History of Religion & Systematic Theology, Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois

Former principal of the Henry Martyn School of Islamics, India

Dr. Haqq has lectured and conducted panel discussions before college and university audiences in the Far East, Europe, Canada, and South America. This includes the Universities of Chicago, California, McGill, Toronto, Manchester, Sheffield, Manila, Hong Kong, Harvard, and others.