to you.

Q / I understood you to say that ~~xx~~ that meeting at which Mr Gignac was replaced by Mr Ouelette was a meeting held on the 25th of May, the request for which was made on the 23rd?

A I think those dates should be changed. The request for the meeting should be the 16th and the date of the meeting should be the 18th. We went through so many things during the past few months that it is hard to remember all the dates. I brought the record here this morning in order to be sure of the dates

THE COMMISSIONER: Mr Montgomery, have you been able to get any of the returns I asked for yesterday?

MR MONTGOMERY: I telephoned Mr Gordon this morning and was informed that they were working on them last night. I will try to have them here during the course of the day.

I spoke to Mr Mole about Mr Read, and we can have him here this afternoon. He is on duty at night, but he can be here this afternoon

THE COMMISSIONER: I want a statement as to the wages, and a statement as to the changes which have occurred in the different mills, and as to the strikes.

MR MONTGOMERY: We will have the information for you this afternoon, I hope

BY MR DU TREMBLAY: Mr Paquette, I understood from your evidence that in the month of May, or the week previous to the month of May, the hours of work were
