Ottawa, 22nd June, 1908.

Sir,-

With reference to cheque No. 137 for $2,000 which was sent you on the 7th April to pay interest money to the Chippewas of Sarnia for the half year ended 30th March, 1908, I have to request that you will forward pay-lists of the distribution at once. These pay-lists, I may say, should have been sent in a month ago.

and who it can be shown is able to support her, provided the Band and subsequently the Department consents to the arrangement. If the Council of the Band (Mohawks of the Bay of Quinte) passes a resolution in favour of granting you compensation for your interest money the matter will be dealt with by the Department. You should make formal application in the usual manner through the Indian Agent, Mr Joe. Stainton, of Deseronto.

Your obedient servant,
