

However, it is realized that in a number of cases such marriages are not immediately known, but as soon as such information is received it is to be reported in the usual manner and her name deleted from the membership list and the payroll. Action should then be taken to have her complete a Statement of Marriage to a non-Indian and when this is submitted to Ottawa to complete her enfranchisement, we should be advised of any overpayments for collection.

for Chief, Reserves and Trusts

SKW.
MM/MA

Indian Affairs. (RG 10, Volume 6891, file 486/28-3 pt. 19)

PUBLIC ARCHIVES
ARCHIVES PUBLIQUES
CANADA

POOR COPY