

"Vancouver has the finest harbor I have ever seen. I do not remember having experienced a more delightful hour than the last one we spent on the deck of the steamer, with the broad outlines of your coast drawing ever nearer and your city coming gradually into view. The approach to your harbor is truly magnificent."

Gov. Charles Hughes of New York

