

gasoline but it is almost impossible to get the odor out of the padding. Very dark furs are best cleaned with hot cornstarch or hot bran. Paste of flour and gasoline—dry—shake. Recipe for cleaning furs, eiderdown, voile, etc., Babies' carriage rugs, made of lambs' wool, etc. 3 qts. flour. 3 lbs. corn-meal. 15c worth of powdered ammonia (druggists'). 10c package of borax. Mix in a tub and rub the article on a board with mixture until clean.

Soft felt may be washed in gasoline. Stiff felt spread on evenly, a paste of French chalk and gasoline. Let it dry and brush out, Also good for furs. Hats—Wash as silk.

BLEACHES

1. Javelle Water. 1 lb. of washing soda, 1 qt. of boiling water, 1-2 lb. chloride of lime, 2 qts. of cold water. Add boiling water to the soda. Dissolve lime in cold water—let it settle. Pour clear liquid into dissolved soda. Bottle and keep in a dark place. Soak in equal quantities of Javelle and hot water to remove stains—takes out color, neutralizes with ammonia. 2. 1 teaspoon of Ammonia to a wash will keep clothes white. 3. 1 pint of boiling water, 1 teaspoon of oxalic acid, 1 teaspoon of ammonia.

Norman & Kirby,  Printers, Saskatoon, Sask.

HOUSEHOLD PRODUCTS

LH 2099