"No amount of temptation can ever necessitate a sin. With every temptation God provides also the way of escape."

Lent is here, most of us might well use it as a time for drawing nearer to God, for coming apart from the rush and hurry of life and spending more time in communion with our Lord and Master. "Draw nigh to God and He will draw nigh to thee." Also we might well deny ourselves some luxury to help extend God's cause, by giving to those in need or helping some branch of the Church's work. At St. Paul's the church-wardens would like the co-operation of the worshippers in helping by extra self-denial to reduce and keep down the church's indebtedness, and then we are behind in our offering to the Widows' and Orphans' Fund, and Mission work at home and abroad ever needs our active and prayerful co-operation.
