of Commons, and with the good will of probably not one-third.

The Liberals who voted in favour of Marriott's amendment to the cloture resolution were Peter Taylor, Sir Edward Watkin, Marriott, Cowen, Sir John Ennis, and John Walter. Thirty-nine Home Rulers voted on the same side.

In the House of Commons this evening Mr. Gladstone, replying to a question. said the Government had no change to announce in the cloture resolutions.

In the House of Commons, last night,
Giadstone denied emphatically that cloture was intended to prepare the way for a coercion policy. John Bright, like Gladstone, commented severely on the designs of the Irish, which he illustrated by quoting the proceedings of the Chicago Convention was intended to prepare the way for a coercion policy. ## Call For A Mass-Meeting.

The following call has been issued for a mass meeting in the Cooper Institute on Monday evening, April, 3d, "to express sentiment upon the imprisonment of American citizens by foreign Governments without right?" without trial:"-

"NEW YORK. March 24, 1882. "New York March 24, 1882.
"To the Citizens of New York City;
"It having become a matter of international notoriety that there are now held in English prisons a number of men who are citizens of this Republic, some of whom, unconvicted of any crime, have been in confinement for a year or more (and how much longer they may be immured—or, for that matter, whether they shall now much longer they may be immured—or, for that matter, whether they shall ever breathe the air of liberty again—is something which no one but the jailers can speak of with knowledge); and in view of the fact that all of these men protest their innocence, and have repeatedly demanded a trial, without avail, to which they are entitled as American citizens, it becomes the duty of the United States Government to demand of Great Britain the proof of their guilt, or their immediate release, as per Act of Congress, passed July 27, 1868, viz. :"Whenever it is made known to the President that any citizen of the United States has been unjustly deprived of his liberty by or under the authority of any foreign Government, it shall be the duty of the President forthwith to demand of Government the reasons of such imprison-ment, and if it appear to be wrongful and in violation of the rights of American citizenship, the President shall forthwith de-mand the release of such citizen, and if the release of such citizen, and if the release so demanded is unreasonably delayed or refused, the President shall use such means, not amounting to acts of war, as he may think necessary and thereto shall, as soon as practicable, be communicated by the President to Con-gress,'—Revised Statutes of the United law, as men loving justice, and having regard for the honor of the American name, we hereby unite in a call to the citizens of New York, irrespective of political opinions, to meet in grand dem-onstration at Cooper Institute, Monday evening, April 3d, to voice American evening, April 3d, to voice American sentiment, to protest against the arbitrary action of the British Government, and demand that our Government extend to these men the full protection that their allegiance to it guarantees.

THE NORTHWEST CRAZE.

The craze for the Northwest may fairly be described as a disease, the ravages of which are widespread, and which in addition to seriously decreasing the population of the older Provinces, must result in great suffering to many of those who are afflicted with it. It is safe to compute the number of those who have already left this season at 3000 or 4000, and every this season at 3000 or 4000, and every day swells the westward bound army. What they are going to do when they reach Em-erson, or Winnipeg, or Brandon never seems to enter the heads of the victims all their endeavors seem to be to go west for fear all the land will be taken before they get there. Correspondents and the daily despatches tell us that the cities are full, that

"Taverns have an anxious guest,
For every corner, nook and crack," and that even shelter is almost impossible to be obtained, to say nothing of comfort. The rates of the commonest hotels are from $2 to $5 per day, with accommodation of the most limited kind at that. Enterprise ing firms are putting up canvas hotels-cold enough comfort when the thermometer is at zero, yet even the scanty accom-modation they afford is bespoken days be-fore they are completed. Under the most favorable circumstances it must be a month or six weeks before settlers can go on the lands they have located, and in the meantime their enforced stay in the cities of war, as he may think necessary and proper to obtain or effectuate the release proper to obtain or effectuate the release proper to obtain or effectuate the release the facts and proceedings relative thereto shall, as soon as practicable, be communicated by the President to Congress.'—Revised Statutes of the United States, Section 2, 001.

"In accordance with the spirit of this law, as men loving justice, and having law, as men loving justice, and having the communication of the commun we shudder to think what is in the the women and the helpless children. It seems nothing short of madness to leave comfortable homes at this inclement season, to encounter untold hardships. We shot inconvenience may be their hope that inconvenience may be their worst experience, but we look for destitution and even starvation if the exodus continues to increase in its present ratio.

THE CATHOLIC WORLD FOR APRIL.

The April number of this excellent periodical is at hand with an inviting table of contents. Father Hecker's paper on the liberty and independence of the Pope is a timely and unanswerable statement of the Roman question. Father Hewitt follows with an able review of Dr. Hewitt follows with an able review of Dr. Woolsey's work on Divorce. "Stella's Discipline" by F. X. L. gives evidence of fine conception and will be read with interest. "St. Patrick and the Island of Lerius" by the late Rev. Hugh Gallagher evinces careful research and genuine Irish devotion to the national apostle on the part of that good priest. The paper on the school question deals with this important matter in a manner so logical and pracschool question deals with this important matter in a manner so logical and prac-tical st to deserve very careful study from the friends of true education. The "Pil-grims of the Cross;" "the Roman Primacy in the Second Century" and "Irish names in Cæsar" are all articles of great historic value. The poetic contributions "Dies Irae" and "Before the Cross" are of unusual merit in every sense.
