

PROCLAMATION.

JAMES CROWDY.
[L.S.]

VICTORIA, by the Grace of GOD, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith.

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME, GREETING :

WHEREAS by our Proclamation made and issued under the Great Seal of our Island of Newfoundland, and bearing date the Twenty-eighth day of the month of September last past, We have appointed and made known to our loving subjects the several Stations which We have established within the respective Districts of our said Island, for the purpose of holding the Elections and receiving the Votes and taking the Polls of Electors duly qualified to vote at the next ensuing General Election of Members to serve in the General Assembly of our said Island: And whereas We deem it requisite and necessary to appoint and establish the number of Places or Booths that shall be opened and held by the respective Returning Officers, or their Deputies, for receiving the votes of the said Electors and taking the Polls at every such station or place of Election. We do therefore by these presents further order and direct as follows, that is to say :

That for the DISTRICT OF SAINT JOHN there shall, at St. John's, be Eleven Booths ; and that at Torbay there shall be Two Booths or Polling Places ; and at Portugal Cove, Pouch Cove, and Petty Harbor respectively, there shall be One Booth or Polling Place.

District of St. John's.

And for the greater convenience of taking the Polls at the said Stations respectively, We do further order and direct that the said District of St. John shall be divided into Five Sections, and for this purpose, be respectively denominated the St. John's, the Torbay, the Pouch Cove, the Portugal Cove and the Petty Harbor Sections, and the division and limitation of the said Sections shall be as follows, that is to say :
