LOCAL AFFAIRS.

—20 per cent. off all parasols at the Corner Store.

—Miss M. Butchart is home for a few weeks vacation.

—Services will be held in the Presbyterian church Sunday evenings in future.

—John Larroch, of the 4th concession has peavines which measure 7 ft 3 in. length.

—J. D. Miller has issued bills announcing a great midsummer sale of dry goods at greatly reduced prices.

—Big consignment of fall clothing just opened at the Corner Store. Prices lower than ever. A. J. Sarjeant & Co.

—The A. O. U. W. are prepared to issue $1000 Beneficiary Certificates, which is a new departure and a good one.

—Thos. Dunbar brought in a sample of oats that grew upon the hill to the west of the village, which measured 5 ft 10 inches in length.

—Why drink an inferior article, when for the same money the most delicious new coffee ever sold in Mildmay can be had at A. J. Sarjeant & Co's.

—James Gardiner, of Mount Forest, occupied the Methodist pulpit on Sunday last. He took charge of the services instead of Mr. Thompson, who was indisposed.

—The monument erected by the Dominion Government to the memory of the soldiers who fell at Lundy's Lane while defending their country, was unveiled on Thursday afternoon in the presence of 2000 people. This date was the 81st anniversary of the battle.

—The weather clerk has either gone crazy or taking his holidays, and left an inexperienced hand at the wheel, as we poor dwellers of this part of the world have suddenly been transferred from July's balmy breezes to October's chilly blasts. If he does not attend to his duties more attentively and give us seasonable weather, he will most assuredly get the sack, and probably be hired over again. It is this kind of weather that causes people to sit and shiver in a stoveless room in the middle of summer.

—The following anecdote of Sir John Macdonald is going the rounds of the press: A reception was given to Sir John in the west, and a bishop from Belgium was present. As the party was being escorted by a body of men in Highland costume, the foreign bishop seeing the bare legs and kilts asked why these men were without trousers. "It's just a local custom" gravely replied Sir John. "In some places people take off their hats as a mark of honor to distinguished guests: here, they take off their trousers."

—See J. D. Miller's advertisement in this issue.

—Great reductions in all summer goods at A. J. Sarjeant & Co's.

—Edward Butchart and family are with friends in Paisley this week.

—Harvest is in full swing at present. Crops are reported to be fairly good.

—Typhoid fever and inflammation is prevalent in the town and vicinity.

—Henry Werner is confined to the house with an attack of inflammation.

—Some new fall goods all ready to hand at the Corner Store. Call and see them.

—To-day (Thursday) is Palmerston's grand gala day. A few from here are attending.

—What is the matter with the baseball boys. Surely one defeat has not disheartened you.

—Mr. David Fortney, of Hespeler, visited his daughter, Mrs. John Blackwell, this week.

—This week our readers will find the live stock markets in another column, instead of where it was previously situated.

—Large shipment of boots and shoes just received, which are selling at old prices in spite of the raise in prices, at the Corner Store.

—There is some talk of the Halladay Bros., of Lakelet, giving a concert here in the near future, under the auspices of the Chosen Friends.

—If you want prints, muslins, delaines, duck, etc., at half price, visit the pile of remnants offered this week at A. J. Sarjeant & Co's.

—Bicycle tires, it is said, will in future be made of paper instead of rubber. They are supposed to last longer and be less apt to puncture.

—We congratulate Miss Sarah Moore and Charles Johnston on having successfully passed the public school leaving examination in Walkerton.

—Two weeks from Monday the melodious sound of the school bell will be heard in rural sections calling the juvenile part of the population to studies.

—Mr. A. Cameron took pity on the editor and presented him with a basket of fine potatoes, onions, beets, etc., for which he will kindly accept our thanks.

—Sacramental and Receptions services in the Methodist church next Sunday. Evening subject, "The Theology of the Collection Plate." All are welcome.

—We are pleased to state that Miss Kate Fletsch, Albert Lobsinger and Hector Cameron, who have been confined to the houses with sickness, are improving nicely.

—The latest sensational story comes from Prince Edward Island where a woman gave birth to five daughter, all doing well. The father of the children is a tailor and 84 years old.

—The "Stars" football team played a match with the Deemerlon club Saturday evening. The match was not of a very exciting nature. The game resulted in favor of Mildmay by 3 goals to 0.

—Ayton and the Mildmay football teams play a match here Friday evening. This will be a keenly contested game, as both teams are evenly matched. Every person is invited to witness the match.

—Parties who contemplate having sales this fall will find it to their advantage to have their bills printed at this office. Neat, clean work guaranteed. Orders by mail will receive prompt attention.

—The Voters' List of the Township of Carriak for 1895 is finished and in the hands of the clerk. The electors are called upon to examine same and if any if any errors or omissions are found therein to take steps to have same corrected according to law.

—John N. Scheffer has opened out a stock of fresh groceries, confectionery, flour, feed, etc., in the store lately vacated by J. L. Titmus, and is a candidate for public patronage. Mr. Scheffer is a young man and comes here highly recommended. We wish him success.

—Glebe's flour mill is now completed and running daily. The machinery was tested on Monday and everything worked like a charm, there not being a hitch. True to his expectations last spring, Mr. Glebe has his mill in running order by the 1st of August. The latest style of machinery has been put in position by the Stratford firm. The millwrights with Harry Cox as foreman have worked faithfully and well, having been here a little over a month.

COUNTY AND DISTRICT.

The track on the Harriston driving park has been plowed and put in excellent order and is one of the best tracks in the west.

The death of the late Deputy Sheriff Ross, formerly M. P. for North Wellington, took place at his residence in Guelph last week.

The visitors of Southampton, Ontario are now indulging in genuine salt water baths, the schooner Greyhound, laden with salt, being conveniently wrecked near the shore.

Mr. M. B. Flynn, who has been in A. S. Clark's law office, Mount Forest, for some time, and whose home is in Ayton is about to start a new paper there in the place of the defunct Independent.

A football match was played on the Hanover grounds on Saturday evening between Hanover team and a team from the South Line, Brant, which resulted in 2 to none in favor of the home team.

The Sabbath school of the Reformed Presbyterian church, Teeswater, picnicked at the Maitland River about nine miles from the village on Thursday of last week. A very enjoyable time was spent.

The Arthur Methodist Sunday school held their annual outing in Banner-man's grove on Wednesday afternoon. The weather being favorable quite a large number took the opportunity to enjoy themselves.

An efforts is being made to organize a lodge of United Workmen in town. There are already six or seven Workmen who belong to other lodges, living in or near Paisley, and it is proposed to form them into a local lodge.

In a league game of lacrosse played at Warton last Friday between Warton and Owen Sound, the home team came out victorious. The score was 4 goals to 2. This leaves the home team a tie for the championship of the district.

A successful barn raising took place on the farm of Messrs. A. & J. Campbell, 4th line, Minto, on Friday. In addition to the farmers of the neighborhood, many were present from Harriston. The programme was carried out without a hitch.

The eleventh annual picnic will be held under the auspices of the Walkerton Fire Brigade No. 1, on the exhibition grounds on August 23rd. This will be the event of the season as the committee is sparing no time or expense in getting it up.

There is every prospect that Southampton will have a brass band right away. The members will consist of good reliable young men who have played in different bands before, so that before the season is over we may expect to hear some good music from them.

The congregations of the Presbyterian churches of Centre Bruce and Underwood held an immensely successful garden party at the manse grounds on Friday night. There were 500 people present. Underwood band and choir furnished the music and the proceeds amounted to $95.

While engaged in clearing a piece of land, Robert McAllister, con. 4, Culross, and those who were working with him discovered a large family, or perhaps several families, of snakes under a log. Forty-three in all were killed and some may have escaped. They were common garter snakes, and ranged in length from eight or ten inches to three feet eight inches.

Henry Conlin, an old shoemaker, living near Maple Hill was burnt out of house and home on Tuesday. The fire broke out about eight o'clock in the morning and is supposed to have originated from a defective pipe. His work bench and a few other articles were all that was saved.

The schooner Greyhound, Capt. Graham, from Kincardine, was wrecked on the reef of Chantry Island on Sunday night. The cargo, which consisted of 300 barrels of salt for Warton, and hay and oats for Golden Valley is a total loss, but it is thought that the vessel can be raised and repaired. There was no insurance on the schooner. Amount of insurance on cargo is not known.
