RED CROSS ENTERTAINMENT

FROM WITHER'S MOTTO

" Nec habeo, nec careo, nec curo. CARE not though to all men known it were, Both whom I love, or hate; for none I fear I care for no more time than will amount To do my work and make up my account I care for no more money than will pay The reckoning and the charges of the day And if I need not now, I will not borrow, For fear of wants that I may have to-morrow My mind's my kingdom, and I will permit No other's will to have the rule of it. For I am free; and no man's power, I know Did make me thus, nor shall unmake me now But, through a spirit none can quench in me, This Mind I got, and this my Mind shall be. GEORGE WITHER.

(Born June 11, 1588; died May 2, 1667.)
