DONOVAN WAS MASTER OF SITUATION AT BERLIN

He Pitched a Beautiful Game of Ball and Brantford Won 2-1--Game Was Fast and Snappy--Lamond and Wagner Led the Hitting.

There was very little to the game at Berlin yesterday except Harry Donovan, who pitched another one of his beautiful games, thus exemplifying what has been frequently said of him, when he is good he is great, and when he is bad he is very bad, remarkably had as it were. It remained for our Mr. Donovan to be on his good behaviour yesterday.

The Presidential Boss of the Red Sox watched the contest surrounded by numerous of his German admirers in the grand stand. He stayed until the last man was out in the last inning. Watching the Red Sox win a game has become a unique feature, and it even thrilled the President. It was close enough for thrills at that.

Bramble, who has been an arch enemy of Brantford for some years, was selected by Mr. Keenan to do the hurling. A Wednesday afternoon crowd was present. The Berlin pitcher was, as usual, the same old cutie. He worked his curve ball and mixed 'em up in fine style. Occasionally, however, a Red Sox bungle was provided to make things interesting.

Berlin's run in the second inning was a gift. Corpulent Mr. Ivers failed to bend over and stop a bouncer which whizzed in his direction. He also failed to close his legs together in his neglect to lock the gates allowed a Berlin runner to walk in from third, whereas the third out should have been provided.

Brantford evened up in the third when Donovan doubled to right. He was advanced to third base by the sacrifice route and came home on an infield hit by Wagner. In the seventh inning the proceedings with a curve to the pitcher which nearly knocked him over. It was Lamond's beautiful hit which brought over the moon. Donovan was invincible for the remainder of the contest, the Berlin crowd scarcely getting a chance to cheer.

The Red Sox fielded sharply all through the game. Wagner's basing the lion's share of the work to do. Coose also looked like a good third baseman. Wagner was nailed in his two attempts to purloin second, but he had the bag on his first try, getting a bad break from the umpire.

The Brantford auto parties returned home thankful that there is a place called Berlin on the baseball map. We can beat Berlin.

AIRSHIP HERE ON SATURDAY

An Aviator Will Give an Exhibition Flight at Agricultural Park.

The first appearance of a real aviator in Brantford will be made Saturday evening at Agricultural Park, when Hemstrought and his Curtiss aeroplane will be here.

Hemstrought has been giving successful exhibitions all over the continent and has participated in many races. His machine is one of the most successful types made. He will make his flight and descent right in front of the grand stand, so that the people will have an opportunity of inspecting the machine. The aviator comes here under a heavy guarantee and the exhibition will include an hour's flying in and around the park. Representatives of Hemstrought were here this week and inspected the park. They were satisfied that it was excellently laid out for a series of flights.

CHICAGO DOWNED.
NEW YORK
A Triple and a Single Gave the White Sox Only Run of the Game.

NEW YORK. June 12.—Chicago, evened up the series with New York by taking the last game of the series yesterday. Russell, a young left-hander, shut out the locals 1 to 0. Chicago scored its only run off Fisher in the fourth inning, when Bodie led off with a triple and scored on Mattick's single. Chicago hit Fisher hard making eleven hits in eight innings, but the New York was effective in the pinches.

Two Players Scrap on the Field.
CINCINNATI, June 12.—One of the rarest pieces of rowdiness seen on a ball field in a long time occurred in the 7th innings of yesterday's game between Philadelphia and Cincinnati, when Peter Bescher singled, scoring Tinker of the locals, doubled, scoring Bescher. Knabe, who took the throw from Cravath, jumped on Tinker as he slid into second, and struck him several times with the ball. Before Tinker could get up and retaliate, umpires and players tore the two apart. All the players mobbed around second base. Knabe and Tinker were put out of the game and the umpires finally drove the Hamilton Broke into the Run Column First when They Gathered 3 Tallies in the Third, Another in the Fifth the Game Was Sewed up for Keeps when 3 More Runs Were Belted In. The Saints Scored one in the fourth and one in the ninth.

Ottawa Hit the Ball.
PETERBORO, Ont., June 12.—By a terrific batting rally in the ninth yesterday Ottawa won from the Petes by ten to six, making it two out of three. In this chapter Swartz's error allowed Renner, who batted for Ostermeyer, to stretch a single into three bases. Harris singled. Shaughnessy sacrificed; triples by Rogers and Lage followed, while Dolan added a double. Robertson went out, but Bullock's single made the fifth run. The Senators had driven Brodie from the mound in the third with three doubles and two singles, which made four of the five runs. With one down Tracey finished the inning. Belting, who followed him, was in poor form till the ninth. Kubat retired with two out in the third. Brant drew three passes, and was hit once. Score—Oamoh roarh was hit once.

London Beat Guelph.
LONDON, June 12.—The London Guelph Canadian League session which was billed for the later town yesterday, was transferred to this city to permit the delegates to the C. O. F. Convention to observe Deneau's men in their pennant scramble. The visitors were beaten by a 7 to 3 count despite the fact that the Te-cumseh were guilty of twice as many errors as their opponents and about half as many hits. Dorbeck and Schuyler handed the victory to the Indians in the seventh round, when five passes, a single and a man hit by a pitched ball sent five runs over the platter. Rube Deneau did his own heaving, and made a pretty good job of it. All of the summary features, including four stolen bases, were credited to the locals.

Sporting Comment

Although the Red Sox won a nice game of ball yesterday at Berlin, there is no great reason to expect that the club, until it is properly strengthened will go on winning at the rate of two out of three. The Red Sox lack the punch in some way and it is a surety that new faces will be seen within a week. President Nelson expects to learn to-night of the results of his Dunkirk trip. If the results are as expected, Brantford will secure four players, two pitchers an outfielder and an infielder. If the club fails to land these players, Manager Kane will leave to-night on a trip east, commissioned to bring back with him real ball players who can deliver. Amateurs are not wanted at this stage of the game. Manager Kane will be allowed to get optional agreement men if necessary, provided they are ball players.

Pitcher Collins has been a disappointment. His curve ball hasn't been worth a hoot this year and his wildness has been costly. Lefty Smith has not been going any too good. Donovan and Clermont have been the best bets in the box, the latter having done a lot of effective work to date.

President Nelson announced yesterday that he was satisfied after the performance of the team here last Thursday and Friday that it would not do for Brantford. He will leave it to the manager to strengthen the club.

WON IN THE TENTH

Chicago, June 12.—Another 10-inning contest was staged at the Club Park in this city yesterday, the third one of the present series between the Giants and the Cubs, but the Giants were on the long end of the score 1 to 0. The final contest, winning by a score of 5 to 2. In the other two extra innings affairs the Cubs pulled out with victories. Arthur Fromme, secured from Tinker and his Red Sox, proved the stumbling block in the way of Evers and his tribe yesterday. He pitched superb ball and was given excellent support all the way, but two errors having been chalked up against his team mates, neither one cutting any play in the final result. Fromme was found for only five hits, only two of which were bunched, the two coming in the seventh inning and netting one run for the Cubs.

such dirty work behind his back he acted with good judgment. There is no room in base ball for such tactics as you describe; fans pay to see a ball game, not a fraud and a cheat and such a play by the runner was nothing else. It would be well were heavy penalties inflicted for such work.

North Park St.—Men on second and third, when first man hits to right field; man on first holds base, thinking ball will be caught on fly, but it drops safe and he is forced at second because of his late start; batsman is safe at first and man from third scores; could you give batter a hit? No, he has forced a man at second and the runner there has prevented him getting a hit by his failure to grasp the situation.

There are thousands of reasons why men should not drink, but they can't think of them at the proper time.
