FINANCE COMMITTEE LOOKING OVER SCHOOLS

Demand From School Board for $60,000 Causes the Enquiry.

The members of the finance committee, headed by Ald. Spence, are making a round of the public schools to-day. The object of the trip is to investigate school conditions in view of the request made to the city council for the passing of a by-law to raise $60,000 for a new school in the East ward. A visit will be made to Dufferin school, the newest one in the city, to enquire if some of the trimmings in school construction cannot be eliminated. In view of the general financial stringency the committee is desirous of proceeding carefully, and to make enquiry if the need as reported by the school authorities is a pressing one at this time.

HARVEST HOME AT ST. JUDES CHURCH

Ven Archdeacon Mackenzie's Regret at Ill Health of Rector.

Harvest Thanksgiving services at St. Jude's Church yesterday were attended by large congregations. The church was tastefully decorated with flowers, grain and the fruits of the season. In the morning the Rev. H. A. Wright preached a thoughtful and instructive sermon, selecting for his text the parable of the rich fool. In the evening the Ven. Archdeacon Mackenzie spoke and prefaced his discourse with a kindly expression of sympathy for the rector, Rev. Rual Dean Wright, whose ill health has compelled him to retire temporarily from active work, taking for his text, Gen. 28 "The Lord God planted a garden."

The choir which contains a number of very good voices did much to make the services enjoyable and reflected much credit upon Mr. Farnsworth, the leader, who is indefatigable in his efforts on their behalf, as well as upon Teddie Foster, the organist, who is steadily growing in favor. Special settings to the Psalms and Chants were rendered, the offertory anthems being "Ye shall dwell in the land" and "Praise the Lord O my soul." The offertory was larger than for a number of years.

SIGNED NEW NOTES FOR HIS OWN BANK

Tyrus Cobb, Apparently Belonged to the Financial World.

[Canadian Press Despatch] WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Collectors doubtless will be on the lookout soon for some national bank notes which were signed a few days ago by "Ty" Cobb, centre-fielder of the Detroit Baseball Club. When the star player was here the other day, he visited the Treasury Department. While being shown through he asked to see some of the bank notes of the "First National Bank of Tawonia, Georgia." On informing the officer in charge that he was a director in that bank and as such entitled to sign money printed for that institution, the bank officer placed his signature to several sheets of the notes.

BRANTFORD POLICE APPEAL CASE GOES

Appeal Will be Proceeded With it is Announced.

That the appeal against the decision in the trial against the Brantford police held in Simcoe this spring will be proceeded with, was the announcement from solicitors in the case today. Just when the case will come up at Toronto, however, is not known. Mr. W. T. Henderson was asked as to when the appeal would likely be heard and he replied that it was difficult to find out. "Frequently," said Mr. Henderson, "we have to depend upon newspaper announcements for notices as to when cases are to be heard in Toronto, and I have at times just had a few minutes time in order to catch a Toronto train."

"A Shirt, A Shirt, My Wedding For A Shirt"

The absence of a white shirt played a prominent part in a marriage ceremony which took place on Saturday afternoon.

The groom had asked his room mate to bring along a shirt to the home of the bride on Terrace Hill, but in the excitement he forgot to do so and when he arrived at the scene of the wedding he was accosted by the groom and asked, where is the blankety blank white shirt?

"I forgot it," said the groom's friend.

"I can't be married without a shirt," said the groom.

Not to be daunted the groom and his friend made a race for the latter's boarding house in Eagle Place.

When the two arrived there the "boarding mrs." had locked the house and had gone to the city to do some shopping. The two could not get in. What was to be done?

The happy thought struck them—"a ladder." The neighborhood was searched for a ladder and finally one was secured and the same was raised to the window, and the two entered the house.

In the "post haste" everything in wearing apparel was found but a shirt. The beads of sweat began to pour down the face of the groom as he thought, "no shirt, no wedding!" Finally one was found and away the pair scooted out of Eagle Place for the scene of the wedding on the hill. They arrived just in time for the ceremony. The wedding march was played and the parson united the couple in the holy bonds of matrimony, and the thrilling affair which would make a great hit for a moving picture show finally resulted in a happy ending.

Birmingham, Alabama, had six tragedies on Sunday, all the result of negro quarrels.

BAND TROUBLES IN CITY NOT YET OVER

The Old City Band Members It is Alleged, Have Grievances.

From what could be learned this morning there is trouble brewing in the ranks of the 25th Brant Dragoon Band. The Courier was told this morning by a former member of the Dragoon band that when the organization formerly known as the City Band forsook that name and became the band of the 25th Brant Dragoons, certain obligations were to be met by the officers of the regiment, which, it is said, were not met. The gentleman in question stated that a number of the members of the band are beginning to become uneasy and want to know what is what. The gentleman who gave the information to the Courier stated that he had lifted some of the instruments belonging to the old City Band which were being used by the Dragoon Band and that there would be a meeting called shortly of the old band to decide whether they would remain in connection with the Dragoons or reorganize the old City Band. If they decide to remain with the regiment then the old uniforms will be offered for sale. Should the members decide to break away from the regiment then they will reorganize the old City Band. There was also an agreement over $100.00 in connection with the old uniforms that has never been straightened out and over which the trouble is supposed to have arisen.

FIVE YEAR SENTENCE WAS HANDED DOWN

Young Man Who Robbed Rev. W. B. Caswell in Winnipeg is Punished.

Five years was the sentence meted out to the young man who robbed Rev. W. B. Caswell, a former Brantford pastor, in Winnipeg. It will be remembered that Mr. Caswell proved the good Samaritan to the young man. He took him in, clothed him and fed him. Then Mr. Caswell and his family were leaving on their vacation and had to close house. The young man stole a key and esconced himself luxuriously in the parlor of the parsonage. An idea struck him to raise money by selling the furniture. He did so, then shook the dirt off his feet in Winnipeg. He was captured across the line, brought back and confessed. He now goes to the penitentiary for five years.

MURPHY JUMPED BROOKLYN BRIDGE

And When Arrested Fell Fast Asleep in a Police Cell.

[Canadian Press Despatch] NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—"Dare Devil Murphy," as Jos. P. Murphy is known because of his high diving feats, took what he called a practice jump off the Brooklyn bridge yesterday, was picked up unarmed by three of his friends in a row boat and afterwards went calmly to sleep in a police station cell, where he was placed on a charge of "attempted suicide." Murphy made his 135-foot jump clad in a bathing suit, which he wore under his street clothes, discarding the latter on the bridge promenade and leaping off the railing in sight of the Sunday bridge crowds before a policeman, who ran for him, could get near him.

FIRE DEPARTMENT OUT SATURDAY NIGHT

Barn on Mt. Pleasant Street Went Up in Flames.

At 10 minutes after 10 o'clock on Saturday night the central Fire Department was summoned to extinguish a fire which had broken out in a frame barn at 35 Mt. Pleasant Street, owned by A. McPherson of St. Pleasant, and was completely destroyed. The fire secured such headway before the department arrived that the building was almost burned down before they arrived on the scene.

Two streams of hose were played on the building, which soon extinguished the fire. The hose was also played on the roof of the frame house nearby, which was slightly scorched and was in immediate danger.

The barn fortunately was empty and was leased by man named Smith. Chief Lewis stated this morning that it had every appearance of a case of incendiaryism. At the time of the fire there was a great reflection in the sky and citizens by the hundreds flocked over to West Brantford, where of the opinion that the Screw Factory or the House of Refuge was on fire.

A standing army of New York citizens attended the funeral of Mayor Gavnor to-day, as well as many American notables.

The Italian Minister of Coasts and Telegraphs dropped dead to-day at a political banquet.

Church News For the Sunday

With the Lutherans.

An impressive service was held last evening by St. Matthews Lutheran Church, worshipping in Willard Hall, when Miss Sara Stinson, C. D., was confirmed and Mr. and Mrs. Lipkey and family were received as members of the church by transfer. The service was held by Mr. N. Williams, the acting pastor, and the sermon based on John 8: 31, was preached by the Rev. M. J. Bieber, field missionary, who also administered the rite of confirmation and later Holy Communion to the congregation. At the conclusion of the service the church council, at the request of Mr. Fissette, offered the use of the hall on Sunday afternoons, and the co-operation of the congregation for holding Sunday School among the children of the foreigners within our city gates.

The congregation under Student Wilson, who is now a Senior in the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Waterloo, has made excellent progress. A class of six young people is under instruction, the Sunday solo.

The annual rally of the Colborne Street Methodist Church, brotherhood was held yesterday morning, when 125 were present. Rev. Llewellyn Brown addressed the meeting, taking for his subject "A Man's Job." The speaker dealt with the duty of the men as Christians. It was their duty to go out and win others to the faith. This work, the speaker believed to be one of the greatest professions. From a number of apt illustrations he drew striking lessons as to how the work could be accomplished.

Mr. Stewart Sanderson rendered a solo.

School, Missionary Society and Lutheran League are increasing in membership and the services of the congregation are well attended. The annual Harvest Festival will be held next Sunday.

All the services for the day were most interesting and largely attended. In the evening the pastor preached a most impressive sermon on the subject "Turning away from a bad past." The musical numbers were most enjoyable, consisting, Anthem, "Seek ye the Lord"; duet, "Love Divine"; Quartette, "Crossing the Bar." Solo, Mr. Green.

A Bit of "Ould Ireland" Come to Brantford

GOOD LINENS—IRELANDS BEST. Yes, there are good Linens and poor Linens. The good Linens are all Linen—all Linen well made. The other kind, by courtesy or in trade terms, called Linen, may be anything. Don't forget that the fine flax fibre, of which Linens are made, SHINES LIKE SILVER; beware of a dead dull fibre.

Ireland makes the best Linens in the world, and the mention of Irish Linens brings to the mind pictures of emerald green bleach fields and the prettily saucy faces of the operatives. Then there's the genius behind it all which designed the artistic patterns and directed the weaving and finishing of the lovely damasks and the other dainty lines they send us.

Our Linen Exhibition Opens Wednesday Morning

and you are cordially invited to come and inspect this beautiful display. Good Linens find their home at this store, and our stock is composed of the best from the looms of such makers as—John S. Brown & Son, Webbs, "Old Bleach" and Liddles.

Here are a few of the many beautiful things that will be placed before you for your approval. The descriptions given will, in part, prepare you for the beauties of the goods themselves.
