Nuptial Notes

A quiet but pretty wedding took place on Wednesday afternoon last at "Hillside," South Dumfries, the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Simon, when their only daughter, Sadie S., was united in marriage to Mr. Geo. A. Barmie, only son of Mr. and Mrs. George Barmie of Brantford. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. Bingham of London, a former pastor of the bride, performed the ceremony. The bride was becomingly gowned in a dress of ivory chiffon tulle, trimmed with bands of silk slinky lace and tiny French roses, and wore a long bridal veil caught with lily of the valley, also a lavalere of hair ornaments and pearls, the gift of the groom, and carried white roses and lily of the valley. Miss Mary Barmie, sister of the groom, wearing pink chiffon dress and large picture hat, and carrying pink roses, acted as bridesmaid, while Mr. Cecil E. Simon supported the groom. Lohengrin's wedding march was ably rendered by Mrs. J. Morden, cousin of the bride, and while the register was being signed, Mrs. R. Wright sang very sweetly. The voice that breathes 'o'er Eden.' After the ceremony dainty refreshments were served. Later, Mr. and Mrs. Barmie left for Detroit and Indianapolis, the bride travelling in a dark blue military suit and black velvet hat. Both the bride and groom were very popular among a wide circle of friends, and were the recipients of an unusually large number of valuable and useful gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Barmie will reside in Brantford Township.

LADIES OF BELL VIEW RED CROSS HELD A SUPPER

The ladies of the Bell View Red Cross Society held an oyster supper also a concert and illustrated lecture in the Assembly Hall of the school on Thursday evening. There was a large turnout and the program was carried out in a very interesting manner. Mrs. Jas. Hurley was in the chair and presided in her usual affable way. The program consisted of a patriotic opening hymn and a short prayer by Rev. Dr. Linscott, after which Miss Evelyn Briggs gave a piano solo and was heartily encored. This was followed with a splendid patriotic solo by Mr. A. T. Briggs which brought forth a hearty encore. Rev. Dr. Linscott gave a short patriotic address after which Rev. W. E. Baker, B. A., pastor of the Colborne Street Methodist church gave a splendid illustrated lecture on Nelson and the British Navy. Before proceeding with the lecture proper Mr. Baker had a large number of interesting scenes of London at the time of the battle of Trafalgar land thrown upon the screen upon which he made running comments. The lecture was illustrated with great historic events in connection with the illustrious Lord Nelson. The unflagging interest of the large audience was held by the lecturer for about an hour and a half. A hearty vote of thanks was given to the lecturer and arrangements for interesting proceedings were brought to a close by singing the National Anthem. The ladies realized quite a substantial sum for the Red Cross Society's funds from the evening's entertainment.

AN ARISTOCRAT AMONG 'MUMS

Personally Conducted Tour of a Giant Plant 15 Feet in Diameter.

A special car for one chrysanthemum presided over by a bridge engineer of a railroad! Never heard of such a thing! Neither did any one else, until arrangements were made by Mr. M. A. Vinson, Secretary of the Cleveland Flower Show, with the New York Central Railroad to transport one of Mr. Lohsohn's prize chrysanthemums from his greenhouse at Ardsley, N.Y., to the Flower Show, which will be held at Cleveland from November 10th to 15th. The plant is 15 feet across its umbrella like formation and is covered with 1200 blossoms, making it literally a gigantic bouquet. An object of such a size cannot be loaded on an ordinary freight car and the problem of clearance from the bridge clearances. The immense plant will be packed on edge, the lower edge resting within six inches of the rails, and the upper just clearing some of the bridges by four or five inches. The plant will leave Dobbs Ferry on November 5th and be well chaperoned. A representative of the New York Central will travel with it, as well as Mr. J. W. H. Campbell, Superintendent of the Ardsley greenhouses and an assistant. This extraordinary care is taken on account of the unusual size of the plant and the necessity of preventing any kind of mishap en route. On arrival at Cleveland the great plant will be paced on a motor truck and driven through the streets under an escort of mounted police. The plant is valued at several thousand dollars and is only slightly smaller than the largest of those raised by the Emperor of Japan, whom Mr. Lohsohn is striving to outdo.

Music and Drama

There was a very large audience at the Opera House last night when the notable farce "It Pays to Advertise" was presented. The amusing situations and complications kept the spectators in roars of laughter and the whole presentation was a regular tonic to all present. The company was a very capable one.

Mr. Wm. Holden, as Cyrus Martin, the father with an abrupt manner, but heart of gold, gave a most finished performance. He easily won the honors of the cast with one of the finest character impersonations ever seen here. Mr. Richard Sterling, as the son, and Miss Edna Baker were also excellent. In fact, the entire presentation was well balanced and thoroughly delightful.

Three masked men held up and robbed Sheriff B. F. Walker of Harpden county, Tex., while he was in his auto. Sca-recrows have routed the pigeons from Qu'e's county courthouse, and they have lodged in the jail instead. Because rain stopped harvesting, Martin Miller, Russell, Kan., turns his wheat to prepare the ground for a new crop. George Chamberlain, a boy, found $610 in a can at Stratford, Ill., while using the estate where it was found for its recovery.

The business part was then conducted, after which the following program was given: Instrumental solo, Miss Bawtinheimer; paper, "Cainsville," written 25 years ago was read by Mrs. Fred Sumler. TUTELA BRANCH. The Tutela Branch of the Women's Institute met for their November meeting at the home of Mrs. Lyman Chapin, Tutela Heights, with Miss Fawcett, first vice-president in the chair. After the minutes of the October meeting were read and adopted, roll call was answered by quotations from Canadian authors. An excellent paper was read by Mrs. Chapin on Canadian authors, and called on Miss Florence Tomlinson and Miss Irene Alexander for a couple of poems, which made the paper much more interesting. Mrs. Henry Kirby gave a splendid paper on Thanksgiving for their November meeting and was appreciated by all. Before closing it was decided to keep on knitting and to make more surgical shirts for the Red Cross society. All enjoyed a social chat over the teacups. The next meeting will be held at Aspley Farm, the home of Mrs. John A. Holding on Dec. 7, at 2.30 o'clock.
