The Gazet.e, Montreal, in giving news of Railways, has the following "4t a recent meeting under the presidency of Mr.W. Strachan, for the purpose of discussing matters pertaining to rolling stock and other equipment. It is understood that the big bridge over the Shudenacadie river will be completed in June, and that the road from Windsor to Turo, N. S., connecting the Dominion Atlantic with the Intercolonial Railroad will be opened immediately afterward. The line is sixty miles in length, and when ready will give the residents between the two lines mentioned additional facilities.
