

OVERCOAT

You owe yourself an Overcoat that's right—the Overcoat that's right owes you proper protection and wear.
But you will not find that "right kind" of Overcoat everywhere.
You'll certainly not find' it, if you shop at rand m.
If you patronize most any kind of a Clothing Store most anywhere.
If you jump at the first reduced price advertised
If you rush into a store and rush out, buying the first Coat shown you.
To procure that "right kind" of Overcoat you must go to the right store—the kind of a store that confines its advertising to facts and invites investigation and comparison.
If you will consider these points, we believe that you will leave your Overcoat money here.
Our Overcoat price range is from $5.00 to $20.00 and your money goes back, if the Coat goes wrong—but it won't.

Ancient Colony of Newfoundland Is Again Sacrificed.

ONLY REMEDY INDICATED

Britain's Oldest Colony Must Annex Itself to the Dominion, and Then Urge the Formation of Canadian Squadron Abstract Rights of Colony, However Legitimate, Will Not Induce Britain to Incur Risk.

London, Oct. 9.—Referring to the fishery modus vivendi The Morning Post points out the moral of the reported result. If it transpires that Newfoundland's interests have not been separated from those of British North America as a whoie, the fact will deserve serious the consideration of the islanders.

Their "responsible" Government being really irresponsible in the last resort, because dependent on imperial authority, their natural logical destiny is to join the Dominion; then urge the formation of a Canadian squadron.

is to join the Dominion; then urge the formation of a Canadian squadron.

Isolated, Newfoundland has no prospect ever of equipping herself with a material defensive force in default of which no British Government will ever incur serious risks for her claims, however legitimate in the abstract.

The Standard says the modus vivendi is the only course practicable for the being, and adds that no transactions of this kind can be rightly conducted unless the Colonial Government concerned be directly represented in the negotiations.
