San Jose Scale

MEETING AT RIDGETOWN

Ridgetown, Jan. 23.—At a meeting of the Iruit growers of East Kent, held here, the San Jose scale was thoroughly discussed.

J. Fred Smith, provincial inspector, and Joseph Tweedale, of Fruitland, who were sent here by the Ontario Government, addressed the meeting on the different solutions used in spraying. The composition of thirty pounds of lime and fifteen pounds of sulphur, boiled for two hours or more, with forty gallons of water, was shown to be the least expensive, as well as most successful means of combating the pest.

Many prominent growers of the Many prominent growers of the ection also spoke on the matter, and the following resolution was carried by the meeting, and will be forwarded to Hon. Mr. Monteith, Minister of Agriculture:

"That it is the opinion of this meeting that the Government should send a power sprayer and a competent man to operate it, to be used by an association to be formed, who will be required to say a penical to the control to th will be required to pay a nominal or octual cost." made the remark that if some action was not taken this spring to stay the soile, there would not be an orchard in East Kent in five yeard.

The general time of the meeting was that the growers themselves should spray their orchards thoroughly each spring with lime and sulphur. By so doing they would not only exterminate the pest in time, but would also improve the quality of the fruit.

Mr. Ribble—I for one am heartiy in favor of that petition, and I hope the Council will support it. About one-third of the pupils of the county would be deprived of this education if these classes were not in force.

Mr. Crawford (Tilbury) — I am heartily in favor of anything which will facilitate education in this county and I would favor anything reasonable in the way of a grant. I have that considerable experience in engaging young men and women and I find that if they do not go farther than graduating from a Public school they are unfit to satisfactorily fill a husiness position. We should encourage these classes.

Mr. Irving favored M Crawford's (Dover) objection. He objected to the non-resident fee chargi to pupils from the country attelling these classes in the villages.

Mr. Denholm pointed of that Kent

Mr. Denholm pointed of that Kent was fortunate as far as xpense goes in connection with Colleiate Institutes, over other counes. There were other smaller counts with less High schools than there ere in Kent. The people demanded inher education, and if, suitable grats were not given continuation class we would find more High schools pringing apand the expense to the unity would be much greater than he present system of making grants o continuation classes. He was heaily in favor tion classes. He was healily in favor tion classes. He was heally in favor of the resolution.

The Warden answered Mr. Crawford (Dover) by pointix out that these classes are distibuted and brought nearer the pulls in the townships, making this education easier of access. He faved as large a grant as the county cold afford to give.

a grant as the county cold afford to give.

Mr. Badder favored thidea of the petition, but he would like to see the grant distributed o all the schools, and did not fave giving it all only to the schools in the places mentioned.

Mr. Johns thought thenembers of the Council should in this proceedings deal with matters who a broad mind, work for general god and pass measures which will benet the great masses. While the coucillors are elected to represent different municipalities, they were elected to look after the good of the canty as a whole.

Mr. Clark voiced sentimats against the prayer of the petition Mr. McLarty wanted the grants distributed equally and fair. This is a new thing and he though the Council should be cautious, an he moved an amendment that the matter be referred to the committeen Education to give it further cosideration. Mr. Greene favored the petition. He had a scholar attending the Bothwell school, paying 60 cent a month. well school, paying 60 cen a month, and he was quite satisfied. He would be quite willing send a scholar ten miles at 60 cens a month rather than send the scholar to Chatam. He favored the original motion Buchanan objected to the iginal motion. Mr. Johns saw no necssity sending it back to the consittee Education. He thought the was. poor man's proposition-a cheme to poor man's proposition—a cheme to help the poor man give h children competent education. If the classes are not maintained the couty would have to erect two more Hin schools. Mr. McLarty cited the cas of Morpeth. The people did not at all the advantages, and yet the pay the school rate. He wanted city member to understand the mater thoroughly. He asked for the school rates in the villages, but found out they were higher than he thought they were.

Mr. Denholm pointed ou that the Mr: Denholm pointed ou that the fees charged to non-residnt pupils in continuation classes as smaller than the fees charged at he High schools, and the work is eactly the same, but these fees do ot begin to pay for the education of these pupils.

Mr. McLarty did not wan to injure these schools. He had changed a child of his own from the Ridge wn High school to the Thamesville shool and he got along better in Themesville got along better in Thmesville

than he did in Ridgetown yet he could not bring himself the present movement.

Mr. Crawford (Tilbury) thought that if the continuation shools in the towns and villages wee properly supported it would led to the springing up of continuatin classes in the rural schools. The puple would see that the Council was eady and willing to encourage eduction and more centres would be estblished. Mr. Denholm enforced the point ef

Mr. Gibb wanted the Coupil to un-derstand that the municipaties ask-ing for aid were not aking the county to run their classes for them. The total expense in connection with these classes in Blenheim last year was about $1,900.
