at the Opera House next Monday

The next meeting of St. Andrew's

The open season for rabbits closed on March 1st; also for the following birds: black duck, commonly called blue wing; harlequin duck, commonly called lords and ladies; golden eye, commonly called whistler; scap duck, or lesser scap duck, commonly called blue bill.

'Charley's Aunt,' which was presented at the Opera House on Tuesday evening, was a most amusing entertainment. The acting was good, the costumes pretty and the situations most laughable. There was a good attendance considering the rather disagreeable state of the weather and roads.

At the Methodist church on Sunday evening the minister will speak on the subject 'The Call of the Church; or Reasons why you should Join the Church.' Some folk say they don't need to join the church to live a good life. Do you know what 'Billy' Sunday said of such people? Come and hear.

The public meeting of the citizens on Thursday evening last week was not very well attended. Mayor Hales presided and stated the object of the meeting, and the necessary resolution authorizing the Council to apply for authority to borrow $25,000 to retire Sawer bonds maturing during the coming summer was passed unanimously.

The 'Good Roads' meeting at the Opera House last Friday afternoon called out a large audience who were much interested in what they heard and saw. Some disappointment was experienced, however, that more information concerning local needs was not given, the object of the meeting apparently being to advertise a particular kind of machinery for road construction.

Enrollments in the Canadian the Department of Militia. Total enrollments in the Dominion during the

OUR LUNGS ARE DELICATE

Overwork, lack of fresh air, mental strain or any sickness disturbs their functions. Stubborn coughs tear and wear the sensitive lung tissues.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

should be taken promptly for hard coughs, unyielding colds, or when strength is lowered from any cause. Its high nutritive value creates resistive force to ward off sickness. The rich cod liver oil improves the quality of the blood to relieve the cold and the glycerine is soothing and healing to the lung tissues.

The "Buy-At-Home" Campaign.

"BUY AT HOME" IS THE SLOGAN—CAMPAIGN EXTENDED TO WOLFVILLE.

If the mail-order houses of Upper Canada notice a phenomenal falling off in orders from Kings county in the next few months, they will have to blame the "buy-at-home" campaign which is to be started in this town within a few days. The fight is about to be launched. It is true that it is somewhat late but it will be even more strenuous than if waged at an earlier period.

The mail-order firms have had things too easy in the past. The local merchant, like the British bull dog, requires a lot to a one him but when he gets started there is trouble ahead for some one.

The "buy-at-home" campaign is a co-operative effort on the part of the business interest of the community to encourage buying at home. Keep your money in circulation at home. It is the object, and through the local press appeals will be made to the people to give the home merchant the preference.

The campaign is being started simultaneously in the leading towns and cities of the province, a group of progressive merchants in each community are backing the scheme, and since it was announced in Wolfville some weeks ago, that such a contract, was to take place, much interest has been manifested, and there is no question but that the movement will be a big success.

We have before us copies of several of the "buy-at-home" articles, and must say that they are of an intensely human interest and should make the public realize that its first duty is to the home merchants. A particularly striking paragraph in one of these articles is as follows:

'Let us suppose you are a farmer.
You sell your produce in and about your nearest town; you cannot sell it if Montreal or Toronto, and therefore anything that makes the people of your town wealthier or more prosperous naturally means more business for you. Is it fair or just that you take this money that you earn in your home town and send it away for goods that you know can be purchased just as satisfactorily from your best friend—the local merchant?'

And what is true of the farmer is true of you, Mr. Clergyman, of you, Mr. School Teacher, of you, Mr. Carpenter, of you, Madam, and you, and you, and you.

The management of the 'Buy-at-Home' campaign received the following flattering letter from a country merchant:

'I wish to congratulate you upon your articles upon buying at home.
They certainly strike the right key and I hope they will prove powerful, both to yourself and in assisting the object aimed at. This is the kind of publicity and sort of patriotism that I have always felt this county, and especially this town, needs to bring it to sound and genuine prosperity.'

We have no doubt that the response in Wolfville to the 'Buy-at-Home' campaign will be whole hearted and generous. If the home merchant can give the same value as the mail-order houses, why a couldn't he have your trade and we are prepared to say that the merchants of Wolfville are most anxious for you to compare prices before ordering your goods from Toronto and are ready to demonstrate that you just as cheaply and advantageously at home.

One of the largest retail Furniture Dealers in Nova Scotia, issued the public, last week:

'Our firm will place in any home in the Maritime provinces, any article of furniture as cheaply as it can be purchased through any mail-order house in upper Canada.

No doubt some Wolfville merchants will come out with the same statement in conjunction with the 'Buy-at-Home' movement. All success to the campaign.

Prevention of Coal Shortage.

This winter we have had a coal 'famine' and that suffering has accompanied the shortage of this necessary is undeniable. The average citizen has a notoriously short memory, but now is the time to impress upon him that, in many cases, the suffering was due to lack of foresight. In Canada—often only one ton. If for any cause, there is a shortage of coal, improvident householders demand that the coal dealers do the impossible, namely, that they supply fuel that is unobtainable. Whereas, had they purchased their coal in the summer or autumn, there would be ample supplies available.

While some large consumers, such as manufacturers, cannot store a six months' supply, most householders can, with their present bins or with enlarged bins, store coal to meet their requirements till March or April.

In recent years we have had two coal 'famines,' first in 1901-02, the year of the coal miners' strike, and second, this year, when the severity of the weather and the extraordinary prosperity in the United States caused an unprecedented congestion of freight. A survey of conditions in the United States demonstrates that in the future there will be more coal 'famines' than in the past and that they will occur at shorter intervals.

For this there is only one remedy.
Buy your coal in the summer. If you have not sufficient storage, enlarge your coal bin.

Flattering to the Original

But Imitations Only Disappoint

There are many imitations of this great treatment for coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis and whooping cough.
They usually have some sale on the merits of the original, but it should be remembered that they are like it in name only.

HOBSON'S CHOICE
Hobson, the first man to rent out horses in England, compelled his customers to take the horse nearest the to act in a similar manner, but now the progressive range of choice and advan-

A WOOL-SELLER
KNOWS A WOOL-BUYER
You cannot pull the wool over the eyes of the modern housewife. She knows or soon finds out the quality of what she buys. In former times many fraudulent articles were advertised in the belief that people liked to be fooled. Nowadays, to make advertising pay, there must be repeat sales and established confidence. That means the article advertised must be worth the price asked.
