Out in Manitobia the government thas taken hold of the bousing problem in a way that looks like business. To prevent delay in negotiating with Ottawa, the administration has made available at once a million dollars for the municipalities which will make application for money.

Canadian Commoners are atrongly of opinion that no more titles should be conferred on Canadians resident for Canada. With an attendance of twenty-three at the last meeting of the House of Commons committee on the aubject, these was a majority of twenty for the motion.

The town of Bridgetown has provided a 'public hitching yard, 'an example that ought to be followed by Wolfville. A by-law of that town prohibits teams from being hitched on the streets, and the public is request ed to use the public bitching yard which is provided by the merchants free of charge. A very great advantage would follow to all it such as a strangement were made here.
