SIR ARCHIBALD HUNTER

The governor of Gibraltar, who has been relieved of that important post on account of a tactless speech that he made recently.

NEWCASTLE, N.S.W.

Sydney, N.S.W., Aus., June 28.—During their stay in New South Wales members of the Empire Trade Commission paid a visit to Newcastle, the great coal mining centre of the state, and one of its busiest ports.

The visitors were officially received by the mayor and councillors of Newcastle, and were taken a trip around the harbor to view the scheme of harbor improvements now being carried out. Afterwards a public reception and luncheon took place, the leading citizens attending.

In the course of the speeches that followed, H. C. Langwill, president of the Newcastle Chamber of Commerce, informed the commissioners that Newcastle was proud of having established a record output last year of 7,000,000 tons of coal. On last year's rate of production the coal resources of the Newcastle and Maitland districts would last for 700 years.

Newcastle was ambitious of becoming an exploring centre and also a great manufacturing district, and was in fact, on the eve of being the latter. They had their coal, water, materials, labor, and everything else needed for manufacturers. Further, the district was unique in that it was honeycombed with railways running to the water.

The commissioners expressed themselves as much interested in what they saw of the district's resources.

PATRIOTISM OF FREEMASONS IN ITALY DEFENDED

Rome, Italy, June 28.—For some time the Freemasons of Italy have been made the subject of attack in the columns of the press. They are accused of a lack of patriotism, of being inimical to monarchical institutions, and of exercising deleterious influence in the ranks of the army. In the Senate, recently, Senator Santini stated that several thousands of officers in the Italian army were Freemasons and that the vow they were compelled to take on joining the society was not in consonance with the vow of loyalty which they took on entering the army. It was also contrary to military discipline that officers should belong to any organization which had in its membership enemies of the monarchy such as Socialists and Republicans.

General Spingardi, the minister for war, in reply, said that the discipline in the army was perfect and that any breach of duty on the part of an officer would be dealt with rigorously. The minister added that it would evidently be preferable if officers did not belong to secret societies but he only said this by way of counsel and not in any way arbitrary. The Freemasons have made indignant replies to the charges of lack of patriotism. They recall the fact that with the "Carbonari" and the "Giovine Italia" and other secret societies, the Freemasons were foremost in promoting the establishment of the Italian monarchy.

SIR JOHN SIMON SEES LAND TASK BEFORE LIBERALS

English Party Facing Need of Raising Economic Level of Underpaid Labor as Whole

Oxford, England, June 28.—A combined dinner was held at Oxford recently of the Russell, Palmerston, and Eighty clubs to inaugurate the Oxford University Liberal Club.

Sir John Simon, solicitor-general, was present and spoke on the achievement of the liberal government and on the land question which his party propose to deal with in the near future. It ought to be the essence of the Liberal temper, he said, that it takes more interest in the future than in the past, and the very fact of advance was sure to provoke some resentment. But, if they lost and outpost at Newmarket and were repulsed in an attack on Altrincham, they must reply by an advance all along the line.

The condition of England which was the central topic of 1840, has indeed greatly changed in the 70 years which had elapsed since that time. But could it be truly said that the condition of England, judged by the contrasts between the comforts of the rich and the anxieties of the poor, was less tragic or more tolerable than it was? If the standard of comfort among the poor had risen, so also had the level of expenditure and display among the rich.

THAW'S MISSING COUSIN KILLED
Escaped From Asylum for Feeble Minded and Dies Under Train

Franklin, Pa., June 28.—John Ross, 40 years old, a cousin of Harry Thaw, who escaped from the asylum for the feeble minded at this place several days ago and has been missing ever since, was killed today.

Ross threw himself on the track of the Pennsylvania Railroad just as a fast express rounded a sharp curve. Despite signals and the warnings, he did not move and was ground to death beneath the wheels. The body was identified by the clothing.

EALING, ENG., BUYS PLAYGROUND
London, June 28.—The Ealing borough council have bought for £7,500, 26 acres of low-lying land on which there was a probability of factories or small buildings being erected. The view which it affords across the Brent valley to Harrow is one of great beauty. The ground is to be used as a playing field.

WELSH COAL STRIKE SHRINKS
Cardiff, June 28.—The strike called by the miners' executive as a protest against non-unionism in the mines, narrowed its arena a week from its proclamation, to the Rhondda-Pits of D. Davis & Son. The men still on strike, numbering 700, are receiving financial support from the Miners' Federation.

NOW SEEK TO BAR ALL MARRIED TEACHERS
Plan May Stir Tempest at Tomorrow's
Board of Education Meeting

New York, June 28.—The committee on elementary schools will present a report that the employment in the school of married women, and especially of married women who are mothers, is contrary to public policy and the best interests of the children.

The report is expected to stir up a debate that will sizzle.

Abraham L. Stern, chairman of the committee, who believes that the report will be accepted, will be on his way to Europe when the board meets, as he will sail on the Kaiser Wilhelm. Speaking of the report he said:

"The courts have decided that the old bylaw, passed in 1902, by which the marriage of a teacher was equivalent to her resignation, was not legal. But this does not mean that the board has not right to dismiss married women teachers. All that is necessary is a reasonable ground, inefficiency or neglect of duty.

"We consider child bearing neglect of duty in so far as it effects the welfare of the school children. We do not feel that it should come under the head of illness. The ordinary illness for which leave of absence is granted is a temporary matter, while the case of a child is not.

"New York city pays $35,000,000 a year to school teachers, and it is our duty to see that the service is the best that can be procured. When a teacher marries her interests are necessarily divided, and we feel that we could get better service from one of the 500 applicants upon our waiting list. Many of these young women have families dependent upon them, elderly parents or young brothers and sisters to be supported, and they deserve an opportunity. The claims upon them are financial and not physical. They do not interfere with efficiency.

"As a matter of fact all the husbands of teachers are quite as able to support them. That is, if the wives are willing to accommodate their style of living to the husband's income.

"There is apprehension due to the belief that the present Administration in America is hostile to business interests. I have tried to dispel that notion among my banking friends, but I must say that I found them skeptical. They say that confidence is being undermined and if it continues the depression will result in bringing on a monetary crisis which France will not be able to relieve as she did in 1907, her own needs being such that she cannot spare any gold for a long time to come."

BANKERS IN FRANCE FEAR A CRISIS IN U. S.

Maurice Leon Says They Believe Administration Hostile to Business Interests.

Paris, June 28.—Maurice Leon, a French lawyer who has lived many years in New York, said today in reply to a question by The Sun correspondent as to how he found financial opinion here in regard to the conditions in the United States:

"There is apprehension due to the belief that the present Administration in America is hostile to business interests. I have tried to dispel that notion among my banking friends, but I must say that I found them skeptical. They say that confidence is being undermined and if it continues the depression will result in bringing on a monetary crisis which France will not be able to relieve as she did in 1907, her own needs being such that she cannot spare any gold for a long time to come."

MELBOURNE LINES BEING MORE USED

Melbourne, Vic., Aus., June 28.—In the past five years the revenue from periodical tickets on the Melbourne suburban railway lines has increased as under:

First-class: 1908, £18,048,165; 1912, £24,281,124.
Second-class: 1908, £9,444,025; 1912, £12,511,140.

Workmen's weekly tickets: 1908, £4,072,857; 1912, £6,549,663.

In the same period ordinary single and return tickets, first and second-class, have increased from £37,100,500 to £50,826,021, and special and picnic tickets from £857,800 to £1,237,574.

CARRYING OF ARMS IN CHURCH PARADES
Regulation Has Been in Force But is Often Broken

Ottawa, June 28.—The carrying of arms by militia units and cadets in Sunday church parades is to be discontinued. This the effect of an order issued by the department of militia and defence. This regulation has been in force for some time past, but it is understood that it has been frequently transgressed by cadet corps in recent years.

The growth of the boy scouts and cadet movements and the tendency of these junior corps to carry arms on all occasions when on parade have made the absolute enforcing of the regulations necessary.

It is also understood that the rule has several times been broken by a semi-regular military organization in Montreal. The danger of accidents will also be considerably diminished by the enforcement of the order.

TWENTY TONS OF GOLD DROP FROM THE SKY

McFarland Farmer Finds Meteor Sheet of Pure Metal

Fresno, June 28.—Fred Williams, farmer of McFarland, near Bakersfield, brought to Fresno today for the purpose of having it assayed a chunk from a meteor which, he says, he discovered on his ranch at a depth of 16 feet while digging a well. The chunk has the appearance of solid gold. Williams was unable to find an assayer, but took the chunk to a number of local jewellers, who pronounced it crystallized gold. Williams says the mass must weigh at least about twenty tons. It is only about an inch and a half thick.

FIFTY-SIX CENTS PAID FOR $200,000 RUBENS

Doctor Finds Art Treasure in $250 Purchase

Melbourne, June 28.—Dr. A. J. Summers, an artist and musician, while visiting this city, became so impressed with a canvas painting representing "Thise and Pyramus" that he purchased it from a vendor for $250.

On submitting it to experts the painting was found to be a production of Rubens valued at $200,000. The vendor told the doctor he paid but 56 cents for the treasure.

The picture is on its way to the National Gallery to be finally identified.

Bleeding Headaches From Catarrhal Irritation Now
Quickly Cured

The New Inhaler Breathing Treatment Does Away With All This Sort of Things.

"A stuffy cold in the head, or an old-fashioned attack of Catarrh are simply ancient history to me nowadays," writes S. Nathan Smith, from Cornwall, Ont. "I used to have the worst kind of bleeding headaches. They were torture to me on damp days when my Catarrh was bad. I would still perhaps be suffering but for the fact that I saw a friend inhaling Catarrhazone with apparent pleasure, and I got the dollar outfit in the Windsor Hotel Pharmacy in Montreal. I could scarcely believe the way Catarrhazone cleared out my head. It let me breathe easier than I had breathed for five years. Catarrhazone has cleared away every vestige of Catarrh from my system. My breath used to be rank—now it is sweet. My digestion was constantly disordered, but since the Catarrh is cured I have no stomach trouble. I am perfectly well and Catarrhazone did it all."

For speakers and singers and persons troubled with an irritable throat, bronchitis, asthma, Catarrh or la grippe, Catarrhazone is of inestimable value. The inhaler can be carried in your pocket and may be used at any time or at any place.

Large size, guaranteed, and sufficient for 2 months' use, costs $1; smaller size 50c; sample size, 25c; all storekeepers and druggists or The Catarrhazone Co., Buffalo, N.Y.

FRANCE ASKED TO PAY FOR TOUR OF PRESIDENT

Paris, June 28.—A bill has been tabled in the French Chamber opening credits of £1,200,000 for the journey of the president of the republic to England, and of £1,600,000 for his journey to Spain.

In the preamble of the bill it is stated that "The journey that the President of the republic proposes to make to England in the month of June, in reply to the gracious invitation of his majesty the King of Great Britain and Ireland, Emperor of India, will once again demonstrate the close intimacy of the relations existing between the United Kingdom and France to the greatest advantage of European peace and the cordial political and economic relations which are so highly valued by the two governments."

Referring to the journey to Spain, the preamble says that the agreements concluded between the two nations for the settlement of their relations in Africa, and the cordial sentiments which exist between the two nations, give good reason to look forward confidently to the visit which the president of the republic proposes to make.

EDINBURGH RANKS FILLING
