Soper, J.P., J. P. Thompson, S.M.

The Board of Governors elect are asked to meet at the Sunday School room of George St. Church at 5 p.m. for the election of an Executive Committee.

At 8 p.m. in George St. Methodist Church, an Ordination service will be held, when seven young men will be ordained to the work of the Christian ministry. The charge will be delivered by Rev. Dr. Campbell, Principal of Mt. Allison Ladies' College, and Professor of Church Polity and Homiletics of Mt. Allison University. Dr. Campbell has the reputation of an orator and we are assured that he is prepared to sustain it to-night. For half an hour preceding the service, an organ recital will be given by Mr. Christian, organist of George Street Church. A collection will be taken during the service.

Great Drama in Two Reels.

THE EAGLE'S CLAW.

Rossley's have altered their prices to suit the times, and intend giving bargain shows until further notice, making the general admission 5 cents, with reserved seats, 10 cents. On Saturday night there was a big crowd and all were delighted with the marvelous difference in the pictures on the luminous curtain screen, or new invention, the silver screen, first one in this country. The pictures now shown at Rossley's are the best that moving art and brains can get. Rossley just had a large shipment the other day, and buying them outright, as he does, he has the pick of the market, there are no better to be had, some might be as good but none are better. The feature for to-night been taken from Tony Willard's masterpiece, entitled: "The Eagle's Claw," with the original company, intensely dramatic and soul-stirring. There is another great feature: "Broncho Billy and the Squatter's Daughter," a Vitagraph; "The Man Under the Bed"; "A Close Shave." Biograph, all shown on the wonderful silver screen.

PARIS, June 28.

Johnson retains the championship of the world, having defeated Frank Moran in twenty rounds to-night.

LONDONDERRY, June 28.

The Anchor Liner California, is on the rocks off Troy Island, and calling for assistance. Gunboats have left to render assistance.

VIENNA, June 28.

The police to-day prohibited further enrolment of volunteers among the returned officers and men of the Austro-Hungarian armies, many of whom were to go to Albania to protect Prince William of Weid.

LONDON, June 28.

Militant suffragettes circumvented the police to-day and bombarded King George and Queen Mary with leaflets at the entrance to Hyde Park. A bundle of papers struck the King's hat and threw it sideways, while the Queen's parasol caught another shower of leaflets. The women were seized and carried away struggling violently.

SARAJEVO, Bosnia, June 28.

Archduke Francis Ferdinand and his morganatic wife were shot in the main street of the capital to-day by a student, while making apparently triumphant progress through the city on their annual visit to the annexed provinces of Bosnia and Herzegovina. The Archduke was hit full in the face, and the Princess was shot through the abdomen and throat. Their wounds proved mortal a few minutes after reaching the palace, to which they were hurried with all speed.

LONDON, June 28.

Fred J. Ney, Honorary Secretary of the "Hands Across the Sea" movement, who recently arrived in London, is busy getting into shape a permanent residence in the West End of London to accommodate the visiting teachers from the Overseas Dominions. He has just concluded arrangements with the London County Council for the exchange of twelve teachers for one year, the exchange to take place in September next. He is also preparing for the annual trip of the Canadian teachers through Britain. The party leaves Montreal on July 3rd on the Grampian, and will disembark at Plymouth from whence they will start on a six weeks' tour. Since the Empress disaster there has been forty withdrawals. Besides this party, there are many from New Zealand and Newfoundland. Hon. J. R. Boyle, Minister of Education, and the Archbishop of Ruperts Land are expected to accompany the teachers.

QUEBEC, June 28.

Contending that the story submitted to the Empress Commission by the captain and officers of the lost liner was false, and that the present heading of the hull proves the Storstad's owners' conviction as to how the collision took place, and that Captain Kendall, unnerved by the appearance of the collier after his steering gear had broken down, lost his head, formed the main part of the address made by E. R. Haight, on Saturday. He attempted to show that the collier was not blameworthy for the collision, which was caused solely by the Empress being stopped directly in the path of the Storstad. His speech, which lasted four hours, was well reasoned out, and gave evidence of being carefully prepared. After thanking counsel for their close application to their several tasks, Lord Mersey adjourned the sittings; and, as Haight concluded and sat down, Lord Mersey addressed him: "Your case incolves the necessary conclusion that Capt. Kendall and his witnesses have deliberately placed a story before us that is false." "That is the effect of it," Haight concluded.

Jimmy Archer.

Red McGhee says:

The unbleached gentry of the south, with snow-white teeth an' big red mouth an' eyes as big as owls', stood high or low among the black accordin' to their way or knack o' snatchin' off the fowls. That's jus' tradition, though, y' know. What put my thoughts on that slant, bo, was jimmy Archer's mitt. When he gets down behind the plate there ain't no foul that that he don't crate, if he gets under it.

Just pike the 1913 slate an' get a line on Jimmie's gait. He made some errors—sure. But none for droppin' fouls, you'll lamp. His fingers hold 'em like a clamp—his glove's a reg'lar sewer. You ask him how he turns the trick—how he can make the ol' ball stick an' never bounce away. He smiles an' says: "It's finger work, that's all—don't use your whole hand on the ball. Watch me now—here's the way—"

He only uses thin-stuffed gloves; just halfway down his hand he shoves—it's finger work alright. Well, anyway, his method's good, an' Jimmie looks as if he would keep right on shinin' bright. An' when his catchin' days are done Jim won't get any turkey run like other worn-out dubs. There'll be a place for Jimmie's brain to coach, advise an' teach an' train the future backstop Cubs.

Fire Alarms.

FLEMING STREET.

At 7.10 p.m. Saturday an alarm from Box 233 summoned the Central and Eastern firemen to the building on Fleming Street formerly used as a school house, but now owned by Mr. Philip Hudson. The blaze originated amongst a pile of shavings in the cellar, but the exact cause is unknown. The fire was promptly extinguished before much damage was done, and the "all out" signal sounded at 7.20 p.m. The building is insured.

VICTORIA STREET.

Shortly before 1 p.m. yesterday the firemen were called to Victoria Street where a few sparks from a chimney fell between the walls connecting the residences of Messrs. Parsons and Simms. The blaze was only a slight one and was extinguished with the aid of the chemical.

The Big Attraction To-Night.

SIXTY YEARS A QUEEN AT THE CASINO.

The massive British spectacle, Sixty Years a Queen, or the Reign of Victoria the Good, will be shown for the first time this afternoon at three o'clock. Much has been said of the success which attended the presentation of this graphic and historical picture story in England and in the larger Canadian cities, and those attending the Casino this afternoon will quickly realize fully the secret of its great success.

One of the most picturesque stages in the Court life of the British Empire graphically unfolded in living, moving pictures with much realism and with a wonderful fidelity to life.

Mr. M. B. Leavett, who is at present in St. John's with this great feature, decided to place the admission within reach of all, so that young and old, rich and poor, may have an opportunity of seeing this wonderful attraction—the prices charged in the larger Canadian cities for this production have been much higher than the popular prices advertised for to-night. There will be a matinee every afternoon at 3—and 2 shows every night at 7.15 and 9 p.m. The production is in seven parts.

Insurance of Furness Fleet.

The renewal of the fleets of steamers managed by Messrs. Furness, Withy and Co., has recently occupied the attention of the London market. The fleet has grown to enormous dimensions owing to several ownerships having been swallowed up by Messrs. Furness, Withy and Co., obtaining a controlling interest in them. About half of the steamers are insured on "F. O. D. absolutely" terms, the remainder being covered on the "all risks" policy. The rates paid last year were respecticely 2 ¾ per cent., and 7 per cent. It was naturally expected that the owners would get a reduction in the rate, but the steamers which are placed on all risks' terms have been renewed at the same rate—viz., 7 per cent., while underwriters have conceded a reduction on those done on F. O. D. terms, making the rate for the renewals 2 1-3.—Shipping Illustrated.

Try Again.

You have, it may be, used ointments, pastes, lotions for Eczema till you begin to get tired of trying things. Well, but you should remember that science is advancing all the time, and that what was not possible yesterday can be accomplished to-day. If you neglect to try Zylex—the newest and best thing that science has yet to offer for the relief and cure of Eczema and other annoying and disfiguring skin diseases—you are missing a great opportunity. It may be that it will cure you. It has cured some very bad cases. Price 50c. a box. Zylex Soap, 25c. a cake.

Maurice Costello

AT THE NICKEL THEATRE.

There will be no less than six different subjects at the Nickel Theatre this evening. No two are similar in the least respect so that patrons can rest assured of an interesting performance. Maurice Costello, the well known movie actor, who has hosts of friends in St. John's, will be seen in a beautiful comedy-drama entitled "A Maid of Mandalay." It is a unique story and everyone should make an effort to see it. "Dangerous Foe" is a thrilling drama by the Biograph Co. "Man From the West" is a gripping dramatic story, of interest to all. "The Happy Home" is a tale of the sea which should be very popular here. The comic is "Sunshine Sue." There will also be a "Pathe Weekly." Miss Gardner and Mr. McCarthy will render new songs. The whole bill is a good one and it will no doubt attract large audiences.

Boston Police Inspector Shot.

Boston, June 21.—Police Inspector Thomas F. Norton was shot fatally today in a sensational revolver battle following an attempt to arrest Lawrence Robinson who is wanted in Grand Rapids, Michigan, on charges of murder and robbery. Robinson was taken to a hospital suffering from three bullet wounds. He will probably recover. His companion Joseph F. Daniels, was locked up on a charge of first degree murder. The inspector died soon after reaching the hospital.
