

Another American View of Reciprocity

The Iron Age, of New York, has, as an organ of United States manufacturers, something to say on that terrible Reciprocity Treaty which, according to Torydom, is to ruin Canada. This is what it said in its issue of Thursday last:

"Either the Canadians are very short-sighted people, or the clamour they are making against reciprocity with the United States is all for effect. At a meeting of the Montreal Board of Trade, a few days ago, a good many gentlemen who are either very much deceived or very anxious to deceive the people of this country, tried very hard to make it appear that if the proposed Treaty were ratified we should get the oyster and they the shells. We are willing to credit them with honesty in professions, but to do so it is necessary to assume that they are very stupid. What, or they may think about it, reciprocity is nothing more or less than a scheme, devised in the interests of the Dominion of Canada, to promote the manufacturing interests of that country at the expense of the United States. We would gain no material advantage from the abolition of the duties now imposed upon our manufactures sent into Canada, for the same advantage would be extended to England, our only formidable competitor in the market. With the same privilege extended to Canadian manufacturers, Canada would be the best place in the world in which to manufacture for the American market, and both native and foreign capital would seek investment in those industries which, on this side of the line, are most dependent upon protection. It is idle to say that we should be benefited by reciprocity at the expense of Canada. Such is not the fact, whatever may be the opinion of Canadian manufacturers on the subject."

ANOTHER REFORM DEMONSTRATION.—The Reformers of North York held a grand demonstration at Aurora on Saturday. A great many members of Parliament were present. Speeches were made by the Hon. Messrs. Mowat, Blake, McKellar, Messrs. Diamond, Irving, Cook and others. The attendance was large, and the gathering in every respect a great success.

CONSCIENCE MONEY.—A VERY UNUSUAL INCIDENT.—Some twenty years ago, athen prominent procer kept a thriving store on the corner of King and Meade streets, Hamilton. He did a large business, was well liked, and gave credit to a number of his customers. Times became a little hard, and a good many people found themselves in straitened circumstances. One of these, who had been dealing for some time with the proprietor, became involved in difficulty, and left Hamilton to try and make a living elsewhere. He left behind him a number of small accounts which he bequeathed certain creditors in the shape of unpaid accounts and a small book. To the merchant who attended to the left one of $11.50 for a small chest of tea. At no one knew of his whereabouts, the debt was in due time considered "bad," and the storekeeper dying shortly afterwards it was forgotten. Not long ago a letter was received in Hamilton asking whether Mr. —, or any of his relatives were alive and still in business. An answer stating the facts was duly returned, and a few days ago the widow of the deceased merchant was very much surprised to receive from a town in Scotland the enclosure of £200 sterling, accompanied by a very lengthy letter relating the facts in the case, the vicissitudes of the undersigned, his poor luck in business, and his desire now to pay off old scores and be an honest man. The whole of the remittance, save $5, was to be applied to wiping off the old account, which, by the way, now can't be found, but there is not the slightest reason to doubt that it once existed. The $5 referred to was to be paid to the trustees of Knox Church, as liquidation of an old account for pew rent, due when he left the city, and which, he says, he forgot to pay.

FUNERAL OF DR. PIPE.—The Berlin Telegraph, in the close of a well deserved tribute to the memory of Dr. Pipe, says: "The funeral of the deceased took place on the afternoon of Sunday last. The weather was disagreeably wet, but notwithstanding this a large concourse of people of every class and creed, from both town and country, joined in the procession that followed the remains to their last resting place in Mount Hope Cemetery. Those on foot were preceded by the Town Band, which played mournful dirges at intervals; flags were displayed half-mast high on the Court House and Town Hall; and every other outward tribute of respect that was possible on the day and under the circumstances, was paid to the memory of the departed. On the way to the Cemetery the funeral procession halted for a short time at St.

John's Church, whose pastor, the Rev. A. S. Falls, preached a discourse in keeping with the impressiveness of the occasion. The Rev. gentleman also officiated at the grave, where the remains were interred according to the solemn and beautiful burial service of the Episcopal Church."

TREMENDOUS RUSH

JOHN HOGG

Has now got his New Store, New Goods, and New Prices into full order, and his old Friends and Customers are pouring in to welcome him back again to serve them.

I wish it to be distinctly understood that I have no connection with any Golden Lion, in Guelph or elsewhere, as my New Store only contains New Goods fresh from the Looms. I have no old Shop-keepers to palm off. My prices for the Best and most Stylish, fresh and New Goods are 20 per cent under the old prices charged for Stuff in the other Stores.

"DOWN WITH HIGH PRICES."

Twenty-one years ago I commenced a War of Extermination against long prices and long profits—and I succeeded; but, alas, on my retirement from the Mercantile business four years ago, again the thirst for long prices and long profits began to show Signs of Life, and has continued up to this present time.

But, lo! what a Commotion there is now in the Camp of long prices and long profits, and well may there be that Commotion, because the WONDERFUL JOHN HOGG is up and at it again.

Call at once at the New Store, Upper Wyndham Street, Guelph. Ask for John Hogg himself, as many who would like to be John Hogg do not hesitate to deceive strangers enquiring for that Wonderful Man.

All branches of the business carried on. Tailoring done to order. The finest assortment of all kinds of Coatings, Vestings, and Trouserings in the Dominion.

Ready-made clothing in Men's, Youths, and Boys' sizes, 25 per cent under anything in Guelph.

My general Stock of Goods is stirring up the Slow Coaches and making them open their eyes, saying "Hogg is losing Money."

REFORM, not only in the high prices charged, but in the quality of Goods offered to the Public.

The Public may at all times feel safe while I am in the business. I shall keep a watchful eye not only on the character of the Goods offered but on the prices charged.

Yours Truly, JOHN HOGG.
