AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.

TRAFFIC IN WIVES

London, June 20.—Reports of journeys by British cohsule in the Kas:
district of the Congo show that "little or no actual slavery exists, but the selling of wives by the husband at profit is becoming so universal as the make it a debatable question as to when there this practice does not almost amount to a traffic in slaves."

Men buy wives with the sole object.

and they are often promptly sold again by the second purchaser. "During the various transactions the wretched woman can hardly be termed a free agent."

SEEMS impossible, don't it? But we have never made a misreprésentation in any ad we have written in our twelve years of business in Calgary. Here's how we can do it. Mr. Mac-Leod and Mr. Farrow visited all the leading manufacturers of the United States and Canada, and as all the manufacturers were anxious to unload, they got their very best clothing at their own prices for cash. The house of Kuppenheimer, who make the very highest grade of clothing in America, and B. Gardner & Co., Montreal, all handtailored, and they are without a doubt the-king pin manufacturers in Canada and the United States.
