It is carefully prepared from Sarsaparilla, Dandelion, Mandrake, Dock, Pilewort, Juniper berries, and other well-known and valuable vegetable remedies, by a peculiar combination, proportion and process, giving to Hood's Sarsaparilla curative power not possessed by other medicines. It effects remarkable cures where other preparations fail.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

It eradicates every impurity, and cures Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Boils, Pimples, all Humors, Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, Sick Headache, Indigestion, General Debility, Catarrh, Rheumatism, Kidney and Liver Complaints, overcomes that tired feeling, creates an appetite, and builds up the system.

ATHLETICS.

THE CHAMPIONS IN TRAINING.

An interesting pageant at Springfield just now is Dennis Gallagher, the Buffalo wrestler. He has taken up his quarters at Ward's Hotel, and is fast running, rowing and wrestling himself into condition for his contest with Richardson, the Canadian champion, this evening at the Grand Opera House. Like a sensible man, Gallagher is strictly temperate in his habits, and to this fact he attributes his sustained strength and skill throughout his career as a prominent athlete. He is very careful in dieting. A limited quantity of beefsteak, boiled potatoes, some toast and tea make his usual bill of fare. Gallagher says that in his previous match with Richardson he was not in good condition, and promises this time to give the latter a much harder battle. No better spot on the continent, he says, could be found than the one he has chosen; he is in luck in the surroundings and the uniform in which he has been larger in claims he could have made the distance in less time. The noted American wrestler is always accompanied abroad by his brother, E. F. Gallagher, who acts as his trainer. Both are thorough gentlemen and have made themselves popular with many in the city. In the meantime Richardson is also getting into shape, and with the recollection of his past victory is fully confident of retaining his laurels. An immense crowd is expected to witness the international contest, which will doubtless, owing to the change of style in one fall, prove even more exciting than the last. An amateur wrestling match and amateur sparring match will be among the additional attractions.

CRICKET.

On Saturday the young cricketers of South London and of the Asylum departed themselves on the beautiful Asylum green.

The playing of both teams speaks well for the juveniles and London's future cricketers. A large crowd witnessed the game, including a goodly representation of the fair sex, and encouraged the boys by liberal applause. Following are the scores, and the figures after the games in the first innings being the figures of the participants:

ATHLETICS VS. ALERTS.

The members of the Y. M. C. A. Athletic baseball team are tickled because they defeated the mighty Alerts Saturday. The contest was a fine one, as the score shows—10 to 6.

Brilliant fielding, good battery work and some neat batting roused the enthusiasm of a large crowd. For the Athletics "Jimmie" Bell pitched a great game, and was well supported by W. Lind, Shero and W. Hiscott took turns in twirling for the others, with Quinn as backstop.

The Athletics have reason to be proud of their victory over a first-class aggregation like the Alerts. Following were the players: Alerts—Quinn, Shero, Johnson, W. Ryan, Wm. Tierney, W. Hiscott, Lewis, J. Hynd and F. Arcout; Athletics—W. Lind, J. Bell, McIlwain, G. Pearce, H. Spence, R. Lind, Scretion, Muir and McNeil.

The Dauntless and London Tool Company's nine played a friendly game of baseball on Saturday afternoon, resulting in the following scores:
