The Ministers and Sunday Funerals.
Rev. Messrs. Aylward, Clark, Ballanyne, Gundy, Rigsby, Walker, and Irasmith attended a meeting of the Miniserial Association in the Y. M. C. A. parlor his morning. Dr. Hutchinson, medical realth officer, stated that as his connection rith the association interfered with his egular duties he couldn't continue in his resent relations with the Anti-Sunday uneral Association. It was considered present relations with the Anti-Sunday Funeral Association. It was considered that he had never been an officer to the association, and that he was merely performing his duties as health officer. Rev. Mr. Ballantyne was appointed to interview him on the matter and explain matters. Rev. W. M. Walker, in accordance with his notice of motion, withdrew from the Anti-Sunday Funeral Association. He said that while he would do all in his power to prevent Sunday funerals, he wished to be free to officiate in cases where he saw fit.
