

HER HUSBAND WAS A DRUNKARD

A Lady who cures her husband of His Drinking Habits Writes of Her Struggle to Save her Home.

A PATHETIC LETTER.

"I had for a long time been thinking of trying the Tassestas-Samaris Prescription treatment on my husband for his drinking habits, but I was afraid he would discover that I was giving him medicine, and the thought unnerved me. I hesitated for nearly a week, but one day when he came home very much intoxicated and his week's salary nearly all spent, I threw off all fear and determined to make an effort to save our home from the ruin I saw coming at all hazards. I sent for your Tassestas-Samaris Prescription, and put it in his coffee as directed next morning, and watched and prayed for the result. At noon I gave him more, and also at supper. He never suspected a thing, and I then boldly kept right on giving it regularly, as I had discovered something that set every nerve in my body tingling with hope and happiness, and I could see a bright future ahead of me before me—a peaceful, happy home, a share in the good things of life, an attentive, loving husband, comfort and everything else dear to a woman's heart; for my husband had told me that whisky was vile stuff, and he was taking a dislike to it. It was only too true, for before I had given him the full course he had stopped drinking altogether, but I kept on giving him the medicine till it was gone, and then sent for another lot, to have on hand if he should relapse, as he has done once or twice before. I have never had, and I am writing you this letter to tell you how thankful I am. I honestly believe it will cure the worst cases."

MARKET REPORTS.

THE LOCAL MARKET.

London, Tuesday, Nov. 25. There was a small attendance of both buyers and sellers in the market today. The amount of supplies offered was exceedingly small; there was not enough offered to cover the base of a change in price, with the possible exception of hay and dressed hogs. Grain—There was a small quantity of oats offered, which brought 4 to 5¢ per cwt. One lot of wheat sold at 11.50 per cwt. Hay was offered in abundance, no less than 32 loads being on the stand; sales were exceedingly slow, a large percentage of the offerings were of inferior quality; prices ranged from $7.50 to $9.50 per ton; at 11.50 cwt. fully 15 loads were unsold.

There were no changes in the prices for butter and eggs; there was very little offered. Vegetables—Six large loads of potatoes sold at 80¢ to 85¢ per bag; there was no change in prices of other vegetables. Fruits—Apples were in fair supply—about 25 barrels on sales; most of them sold at 41¢ per bushel. Poultry—Considering the small supplies in other lines, there was quite a lot of small, principally geese and turkeys, for former sold at 65¢ to 70¢ per pound, and the latter at 10¢ to 15¢; wholesale; chickens and ducks were in fair supply.

Dressed Hogs—The supply was large, nearly 60 carcasses being offered, and 38 per cwt. was the ruling price; the market is weak, and prices are likely to be lower. Butcher's Meat—There was a very light supply; prices were as quoted.
