RUNAWAY-NO DAMAGE.

Sunday afternoon a young man was driving east on Dundas street with a young lady, when the horse took fright and ran away. The young fellow held on gamely, however, and managed to keep the animal on the road. At the corner of Egerton street the horse leaped across a ditch and the girl lost her hat. The runaway continued to the asylum gate, when the horse through lack of motive power, called the runaway off, and the young man drove back triumphantly and secured his WIFE WAS A LONDONER.
