Willett Knocked From Box Early and Mullin Finishes—Phillies Shut Out in First, but Redeem Themselves in the Second Game.

Philadelphia, Aug. 28.—Those Mack men went into extremes in their scoring in the double-header with the champion Detroiters today. After losing the opener, 1 to 0, they secured enough base hits in the second to win by a score of 11 to 2.

The team which is destined to cop the second pennant this year played world's championship ball in the first and Crosely Corners ball in the last. The Athletics knocked out Willett, who leads the American League pitchers, early in the second game and kept up their leather punishing when Mullin went on the hill. Five errors behind these two pitchers show that championship squads sometimes get woody.

The first game lasted 11 innings and it, too, would have been won by the locals had they displayed more strength in a psychological epoch. For nine and one-half innings the teams had batted away without a single run being scored.

When Captain Davis opened the tenth with a clean triple to right center it looked like a certain victory.

Jimmy Collins, a sturdy climber, who always can be depended on to hit a long drive, made a miserable failure in his attempt to launch a sacrifice fly.

A Weakling.

He tapped a weakling to Summers, who retired Jimmy at first and at the same time kept Davis glued at third. Nichols then rolled one to Coughlin. Davis made a dash for the plate, but the Tiger third baseman nipped him by a good throw. Coughlin then made a flashy stop of Powers' scorching and a good chance to win the game was gone.

This caused another inning and well did Detroit take advantage of another chance. Crawford opened the eleventh with a demoralizing walk over the right field fence for a homer. This was the only run scored in the game. Detroit, however, faced a perilous situation in the last half. After Barry, who batted for Powers, failed to hit, Coughlin and Hartnell fouled to Coughlin, Oldring and E. Collins hit singles. Murphy sent the ball whizzing on a line to deep center, but Crawford plucked it on the run.

Bender a Puzzle.

The second game was merely a feeder for the Athletics' batting percentages, while the Tigers could do little with Bender. Hartnell walked for a starter and Oldring was hit by a pitched ball. Eddie Collins dumped one to first and beat it out, filling the bases. Schaefer let Murphy's grounder go through him. Hartnell did a ring scoring. Davis sent a double which almost vaulted the left field fence, and E. Collins and Murphy counted. Taking third on a wild pitch, Davis scored on J. Collins' Hartnell out.

After Hartnell started the second with a single, Jennings withdrew Willett and sent in Mullin Oldring and E. Collins were easily retired, but Murphy punched a single to left, which admitted Topsey.

Scored Another.

E. Collins' single, Schmidt's wild throw to balk a larceny and Schaefer's bum heave gave the Athletics another in the fifth. They made four singles more in the seventh, hits by Davis and Nichols tallying Mack's captain.

Stronger batting pressure was good for three in the eighth. Hartnell doubled and so did Oldring. Jones, who had succeeded Cobb in the sixth, made an offside return to the infield and Rube kept on to third, oblivious of the fact that Hartnell was calmly standing there surveying his sprint. Rube was run down and pegged.

E. Collins then made his third infield single of the game. Hartnell scoring. Coughlin's error spared Murphy and the Columbia kid came in on Davis' single. Murphy registered the last run for the Athletics when J. Collins hoisted a sacrifice fly.

Detroit scored one run in the first and last inning. At the start E. Collins fumbled on McIntyre, Schaefer sacrificed and Crawford drove Matty home. In the ninth Rossmann's single, Coughlin's throw out and sacrifice fly put the other run over.

Another double-header will be played tomorrow.
