Only six loads of hay were brought in. Most of it sold around $12 a ton, while inferior loads sold a little lower. Three loads of straw went off from $6 to $6 50 a ton.

Wholesale dealers are paying a little higher for eggs, 19½c a dozen being the figure paid by the crate, while it is expected they will go up to 20c a doz. Eggs are plentiful, but the price is being kept up by the big dealers, who are paying 20c a dozen.

Butter is not coming in in very large anathities, and the price remains unbranged.

Eutchers' meats still maintain a high figure. Very little dressed pork was brought in today, and the price is $11 50 to $12 a cwt.
