Many accompanied the Seventh Regiment to Stag Island, while others went to Grand Bend, and other summer resorts in this neighobothood. The river and Springsbank attracted with boats from early morning until late at night. The London street rall-way carried a very large number to the park, the business being the best of the year, street railwaymen report. Of course the ball games at Tecumseh Park drew well, 3,560 people attending the two games. The Tombola was an attraction that proved popular, a large number enjoying the band concerts and entertainment provides for visitors to Queen's Park. Very Very Warm.

As for the weather, is was unspeak-ably hot. Not this year has so unpleasant weather been handed out to suffering mortals. Some time ago the thermometer reached 94 in the shade,

Calls Came From Leonard's Boiler Shop, on York St.,

THREE ALARMS KEPT

Answering alarms from Leonard's boiler shop on York street kept the fire department busy on Saturday afternoon, the brigade responding to three cails between Jo'clock and 6.

The first alarm was shortly after 1 o'clock, a spark having set fire to the shed along the track. At 3 o'clock another alarm came in, this time the shed along the track in the shed having ignited in a different part, Just refore 6 o'clock the third call came, the shed again having caught fire.

Answering alarms from Leonard's Closkey.

"I would not like to injure his chances of earning a hittle henest money here in spite of what he has done to me," said foliand. Lieut, Breault told McCloskey that if would pay Roland's fare back home in further action would be taken against land. McCloskey agreed to this and Roland's tracted on his long journey this noon. He expects to go to work in a bank when he reaches Moosejaw.
