

CHAMP CLARK LOSING GROUND AND WILSON IS LOOMING UP

Bryan Man Secures Permanent Chairmanship of Convention and Indications Are That a Progressive Will Be Nominated at Democratic Convention.

Baltimore, Md., June 26. — With nominations due to be made tomorrow, the situation in the Democratic national convention, with respect to a presidential candidate, was as complex and uncertain tonight as at any time since the delegates began to pour into Baltimore.

There was much talk of a subsidence of the Champ Clark wave, which reached its crest last night, but the Speaker's campaign managers were not willing to admit there had been any wavering in their forces. At the same time they went to the convention hall tonight with the expressed purpose of forcing the issue at the earliest possible opportunity. The opposition forces, hearing of this plan, prepared to block it. They did not wish the nominations to be made until tomorrow, hoping the situation might clear a little by that time. The adherents of Woodrow Wilson claimed tonight that their candidate had made district gains during the day. They asserted, without giving details, that some of the Clark sentiment was turning toward the New Jersey governor, and were in a more hopeful mood than at any time during the convention period.

Kern Leads Dark Horses.
"Dark horses" were being discussed everywhere by the leaders and delegates tonight, but there appeared to be some difficulty in crystallizing sentiment as to which one of the "dark horses" was darkest.
Senator John W. Kern, of Indiana, Mr. Bryan's choice for temporary chairman of the convention, and chairman of the committee drawing the party platform, still appeared to hold the lead among the dark horses. The coalition of the Bryan and Wilson forces in the first fight of the convention, however, led to talk of the Bryan strength ultimately going to Wilson.

The one outstanding fact in the situation seemed to be the absolute impossibility of any candidate having a sufficient number of votes on the first ballot to nominate. The two-thirds rule prevailing in Democratic conventions always makes the picking of a candidate in advance a difficult problem.

After the first ballot is taken it remains to be seen how well the Clark managers can hold their vote together. Some of the delegates predicted tonight that the voting would run through a large number of ballots, while others predicted with equal confidence that the "break" would come quickly, and a nomination be made on the second or third call of the roll.

Victory for Bryan.
Friends of Mr. Bryan practically ceased to boom him as a presidential candidate today, though they were reported to be taking advantage of any psychological moments that might happen along. It was reported that Bryan buttons and banners had arrived in town, but they were not distributed today.

Two important victories were credited to Mr. Bryan today. First, he secured the election of Senator Ollie James, a progressive, for permanent chairman; and the second, the endorsement of his plan to have the adoption of the platform await until after the nomination of a candidate.

Mr. Bryan today declined to accept the chairmanship of the platform committee, but his close friend, Senator Kern, was chosen in his place. Tonight Mr. Bryan reported the platform as "coming along nicely."

It was said the platform would be ready for the convention by the time the nomination for president had been made. At Mr. Bryan's suggestion it had been determined not to present a platform until after the candidate had been named.

It was generally reported about the convention hall tonight that a number of the western Clark delegates that cast their votes for Judge Parker for temporary chairman were beginning to "hear from home" on account of alleged desertion of the progressive cause. It also was common gossip that there was a good deal of feeling between the Bryan and Clark forces.

Some of the Wilson men claimed tonight that sentiment in the big New York delegation was turning toward their candidate.

The day was generally quiet within the big structure, the only marked demonstration coming this evening, and it was started by the Wilson men. Chairman Covington, of the rules committee, was arguing in favor of the "unit rule" in regard to the voting of states, and remarked: "This is the position taken by the great progressive Governor Wilson, of New Jersey," and the storm broke.

The New Jersey delegation began the uproar. A dozen pictures of Wilson appeared and were scattered through the hall. Senator J. S. Williams, of Mississippi, who was on the platform, swung his hat above his head as he led cheers for Wilson.

A big white Texas banner, inscribed "40 for Wilson," with a Wilson lithograph attached, appeared, and an attempt was made to start a parade through the aisles. It did not materialize.

In the center of the hall, however, the big block of New York delegates sat calm and unmoved.

Officially the demonstration was recorded as having lasted 33 minutes. Chairman Parker warned the delegates during future demonstrations against climbing late the press sections. He also warned the spectators against disorders.

"When the delegates take their seats, it's time for you to sit down," he shouted at the galleries.
The unit rule was beaten on roll call, and 19 Wilson delegates are freed from Harmon instructions in Ohio.

The appearance of U. S. Senator John W. Kern in the arena as a presidential possibility was one of the most interesting developments of the day. That he is to be seriously reckoned with is evident from the fact that he may have the support of Mr. Bryan.

The New York leaders are still sticking to their plan to present Mayor Gaynor's name on the first ballot. What New York state will do after that is uncertain.

Unexpected strength on the first or second ballots, indicating that he might be named with the assistance of New York, Chas. F. Murphy is likely to throw the delegation's strength to him. This is likely to occur, however, only if that Woodrow Wilson's candidacy seems likely to succeed.

Harmon and Underwood are no longer probabilities.

Point for Progressives.
Baltimore, Md., June 26.—The progressive vote in the Democratic national convention gained a notable victory tonight when they carried a motion abrogating the rule by which some state delegations were bound to cast their votes as a unit.

The fight for and against the unit rule was waged particularly about the State of Ohio, where eighteen district delegates were by instruction bound to vote for Woodrow Wilson, but where the state convention, controlled by the Harmon forces, had invoked the unit rule, binding all Ohio delegates to the Ohio governor.

The convention, by a vote of 565 to 491, voted that no state delegation should be bound by unit-vote except in such cases where a state law was mandatory on the subject.

MRS. THOMAS VANN DIES AT INGERSOLL

Had Been Ill for Some Months and Death Was Not Unexpected.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Ingersoll, June 27.—Mrs. Hattie M. Vann, wife of Mr. Thomas H. Vann, died yesterday after an illness extending over several months. She had been a highly-respected resident of Ingersoll for a number of years, and while her death was not unexpected, it has occasioned widespread regret.

The late Mrs. Vann possessed many estimable qualities, and the sincere sympathy of a wide circle of friends is extended to the bereaved husband and daughter. The funeral will take place to the Mount Elgin Cemetery on Friday afternoon.

The annual picnic of the Epworth League of the Methodist Church held at Fawnbrook Park, Beachville, was most enjoyable outing. There was a large attendance of the members and the holiday spirit was rampant. A tempting supper was provided, to which full justice was done, the outing having whetted appetites. Following the repast an interesting game of baseball was played, the Nevinses defeating the High Flyers by a score of 18 to 5.

Defeating the Hydro-Electric by a score of 9 to 4 in a town league baseball game, the Colts have strengthened the hopes of their supporters. The Colts are still in last place in the league standing, but it would seem they have struck their stride and better things are expected in the near future.

Non-payment of wages cases have been fairly numerous in the police court of late. A case yesterday of interest was one in which Frank Morris claimed the sum of $40 from James Jones, of Centreville. The magistrate looked into the matter carefully, and finally allowed Morris $25.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. Wesley Cotton, pastor of the Methodist church, in the presence of the immediate relatives and friends.

The young couple were unattended. The bride looked charming in a beautiful white Swiss embroidery gown.

After hearty congratulations all partook of a dainty wedding dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawson left on the afternoon train for a honeymoon trip to Detroit and other places.

On their return they will settle in Clinton. The bride's travelling costume was of navy blue chiffon.

TWO ACRES DEVASTATED

St. Scholastique, Que., June 26.—Fire, which broke out here at nine o'clock this morning in the bakery of Mr. Max Galant, gained way so rapidly that in spite of all the efforts made to get it under control it swept away buildings covering over two acres of the village's area, and for a time threatened the existence of the major portion of the village. The fire loss was not over $30,000, divided between thirteen proprietors, but there was very little insurance on any of the property.

CROPS ARE LIGHT

Around Kincardine Hay Will Be Scarce and Peas a Failure.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Kincardine, June 27.—There is great difference of opinion regarding the probable yield of grain.

Peas are considered to be nearly a failure. Only two good fields are to be seen in this district. Mangels could not get in in time on account of the wet weather, and when the ground was fit to sow, it was considered too late, and turnips are being extensively planted. Some fields of fall wheat are to be seen, but rust is visible. Hay generally is light.

GAVE HER A WATCH

Popular Member of Ivan Church Was Pleasantly Surprised.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Ivan, June 27.—Quite a number of the ladies of Melville Presbyterian Church, Ivan, assembled at the manse recently and spent a delightful evening prior to the departure of Miss Esther Argo, sister of the pastor.

A well prepared address was read by Mrs. A. Preece, while the presentation of a gold watch and chain, also a handsome jewelry box, was made to her by Mrs. D. W. Campbell and Miss S. Jary respectively.

Although taken absolutely by surprise, Miss Argo, in a few suitable words, acknowledged the gifts with thanks and appreciation. She spoke of the pleasure of becoming acquainted with the members of the congregation during the six years which she spent at Ivan.

She will be greatly missed by the congregation, for her services as president of the Women's Auxiliary and also as teacher in the Sabbath school; but owing to ill health she thought it best to return to her former home, Eden Mills.

Following the presentation a dainty lunch and tea were served by the ladies.

FRENCH INDESTRUCTIBLE

Will Always Be Held in Honor of Quebec, Says Etienne Lamy.

Quebec, June 26.—Today was somewhat of a day of repose for the members of the French-speaking Congress. The delegates took part in an excursion to Petit Cap, St. Joseph, nearly 1,000 persons being entertained at lunch and returned to town at 5 o'clock in time to resume the labor of the day.

On the way back the excursionists visited the famous shrine of St. Anne de Beaupre. Etienne Lamy, member of the French Academy, who was here for the congress, left this afternoon for New York, whence he will sail for France.

Before leaving he expressed the highest praise at the success of the congress, from which he thought the most important results would flow.

A permanent organization of all the French-speaking citizens of America, he said, should be formed in order to safeguard the language. French was indestructible in the Province of Quebec, and the language would always be held in honor.

CROPS ARE GOOD IN WYOMING DISTRICT

Hay Will Not Be Plentiful, But Good General Yield Is Expected.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Wyoming, June 27.—Although the fall wheat fields were pretty badly winter killed, one occasionally comes across one, even above the average. Alfalfa is in coil and as usual a good crop. Red clover and alsike medium, or even below. The farmers expect a big price for any hay they may have to sell next winter. Even timothy is not heavy in this vicinity. However, this spring's seeding shows a good catch.

Spring crops are looking fair, the best being oats, and although so late in being sown, are looking very well. Corn, being late planted, is not high, but gaining with these warmer days.

A field of beans is seen about 1½ miles from here, of about 20 acres, in excellent condition. Very few sugar beets were sown this year, as sufficient acreage was not secured by the sugar companies.

Potatoes Planted Late.
Potatoes were planted late, and owing to scarcity and high price of seed, not so many acres were put out as usual by each farmer.

Going Into Dairying.
The farmers here seem to be taking a fresh interest in dairy stock. With four routes in competition, the farmer may take his choice of destinations for his cream. Very few care to make butter in the old way during the hot weather months. The cream separator has become a household necessity. On the whole, this vicinity, in fact the township of Livingston, presents a prosperous appearance with its comfortable farm homes, large commodious barns and up-to-date machinery.

Mr. James Mustard, wife and child, are visiting the parents of the former. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Mustard.

Dr. William Read has been appointed coroner for East Lambton. For one pupil wrote on entrance exams here.

Mrs. (Rev.) Ross is spending some months at Calgary.

LITTLE CHINESE GIRL MADE LONG JOURNEY

Laundryman Sees Daughter For First Time On Her Arrival In Sarnia.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Sarnia, June 26.—Fong Wing Chong, dark-eyed, petite and eight years of age, has arrived at the home of her father, Wing Chong, a local Chinese laundryman, after a long journey from Hong Kong. Little Wing Chong bears the unique distinction of being the first of her sex to reside here. In the home of Wing Chong there is much rejoicing, and the happy parent seldom lets the child out of his sight. This is not to be wondered at, for the father had never before seen his daughter until her arrival here. Some time before his daughter was born, Chong left his wife in her parents' care and came over the Pacific to seek his fortune in Canada. Sarnia looked good to the industrious young Chinaman and he embarked in the laundry business on a small scale. Hard work, thrift and the memory of a little woman far across the seas conspired to drive Chong along the stern pathway to success.

By and by the business became larger and larger, the treasured bank book contained many more precious figures and the fond husband began to indulge in dreams of joyous anticipation. Finally the momentous day arrived. The letter containing the transportation tickets was dropped into the mailbox and Chong returned to the washbasin and several long weeks of suspense.

Somewhere over in the distant Orient a dreamy little Chinese woman bustled around preparing her wondering daughter for a most astounding trip of thousands of miles into the heart of a strange country. For it had been arranged that the child should come straight to the mother following later. After an endless procession of most amazing adventures too long to mention, Miss Fong Wing Chong, formerly of Hong Kong, landed safe and sound in her father's arms.

The youngster was clad in a dainty and exotic Oriental costume exquisitely embroidered with quaint little birds and flowers, but this was not to the taste of Wing Chong, Canadian citizen, who escorted Miss Chong to the nearest clothing store today and made innumerable purchases of European clothing suitable for the daughter of a thriving laundryman.

The child appeared rather pleased than otherwise by the change of apparel, and all day long she stood in the door of her father's laundry, casting shy, startled glances at the white children who passed up and down the street. The other Chinamen throughout the town appear to be highly pleased over the new member of their colony, and show their teeth in broad grins whenever she is mentioned. Mrs. Chong, the mother, left on the next boat from China, and has also arrived.

MURDERER FOR DRINK

Quarrel About Price Ended in Restaurant Being Shot Dead.

Montreal, June 26.—Louis Guay, proprietor of a restaurant on East Lagachetier street, was shot and killed this evening at the door of his establishment by Dominico Bivano, a young Italian, with whom he had quarreled over the price of some soft drinks. The Italian was seized and held by others in the restaurant. He will be arraigned on a charge of murder tomorrow.

PREMIER BORDEN SAILS

Gives Out Statement in regard to Developing Port of Quebec.

Quebec, June 26.—Premier Borden, before sailing from Quebec today on board the steamer Royal George, gave out the following statement respecting the equipment of the port of Quebec and construction of railway terminals:

"The Government thoroughly realizes the importance of the port of Quebec, and the necessity of pushing development of the harbor and the construction of terminals to completion with as little delay as possible. Mr. Cochrane, with whom I discussed the subject only yesterday, has used every effort to accomplish this end. Any delay that has taken place has been due to the necessity of perfecting plans along lines which have been carefully considered, with a view to the great future trade which undoubtedly will come to this port."

The Premier was given a hearty send-off by a crowd of prominent people, including many ladies, who presented Mrs. Borden with many beautiful bouquets of roses. Hon. Mr. Pelletier, who is spending a few days with his father at Trois Pistoles, will join his fellow-ministers on board the steamer at Father Point.

When Summer Stops the Swing

Most of us can remember the school lesson in the law of accumulated motion—momentum.

If you exert a pound of pressure against a man in a swing, you'll start him moving slowly "to and fro." If you continue to exert a pound of pressure against him every time the swing makes a trip, you'll soon have him going so high that he almost turns the whole circle. If you stop pushing, the momentum will die out and the swing come to rest at "dead centre."

Winning trade follows the same natural laws.

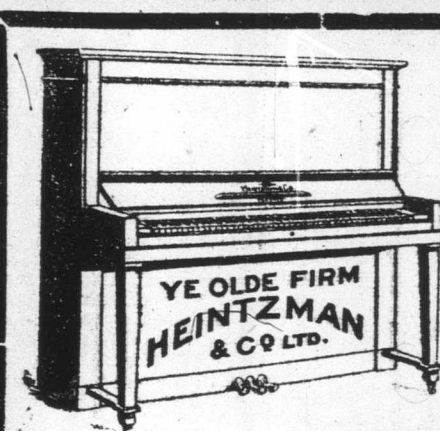

Advertisements are the force behind the swing of public favor. Each new advertisement increases the momentum. Finally, the accumulated force of these numerous impulses swings indifference to the buying point.

If you stop Advertising, you lose momentum.

The moral of which is:

Don't stop the business swing in Summer. Keep adding the pounds of Advertising pressure.

"Usin' Tiz, Gramma?"

*Yes, Harold, It Makes Gramma's Feet Feel Just Like Yours, Free From Tiredness, Aches and Pains.

"Your papa and mamma, your grandpa and your grandma all use TIZ, Harold. And you'll use it, too, when you get to be a man. Then your feet will never hurt, or get tired. That's why we all use TIZ. Most of us get old, feet first. The bunions get stiff, more wearisome and painful. Corns get harder and more stubborn as the feet become more tender. At a time when old people need their feet most, they can use them less—unless they use TIZ.

If you have never used TIZ before, your first use of it will bring back some of your girlhood days. TIZ will make your feet feel young, strong and vigorous. They'll never be tender, aching or sore, never get blistered or swollen, and your corns, bunions and calluses will be no more. Nothing will hurt or ache like TIZ. Don't experiment with other things; other people have done that for you, and they are all now using TIZ.

TIZ acts on a new principle—draws out all the poisonous excretions that make foot troubles.

TIZ is sold everywhere, or sent direct, on receipt of price, by Walter Lathrop & Co., Chicago, Ill. Recommended by all druggists, department stores and general stores.

STOWAWAY STARVED.
New York, June 27.—The shrunken body of a man, half buried in a cargo of pork from Spain, was found by longshoremen today in a remote part of the hold of the steamship Francisco Clampani, which sailed from Seville, Spain, for this port on June 8. The man was a stowaway and had given his life as the price of passage to America. Death was due to starvation.
