HOUSE DEBATES POLICY OVER I.C.R.

Hon. Mr. Emmerson Shows the Govt. Lax in Getting After Branch Lines.

CONTROL OF STREETS Dr. Williams successor Reid, a brother of the minister, who had previously held the position, and

Minister of Railways Hints at More Complete Power for the Municipalities.

Ottawa, Jan. 20. - The greater part of today's session of the Com-mons was spent in discussing Hon. mons was spent in discussing Hon. H. R. Emmerson's resolution declaring that it would be desirable that the in-Municipalities for amendments of exfluence of the Intercolonial Railway should be widened and extended by securing by "lease or purchase such of the branch lines now connected with the I. C. R. as will serve as direct and profitable feeders." The resolution further declared that it would be in the the right of control over their own general interest of the country "to se-cure these lines without a special concure these lines without a special con-sideration to the immediate financial railway board, but the issue has been

Mr. Emmerson showed that because of the laxity of the Government in taking over branch lines touching the taking over branch lines touching the panies incorporated prior thereto Took a Keen Interest in All Public Intercolonial in Nova Scotia and have maintained that the legislation Brunswick, these small lines were absorbed by the C. P. R. and abolished any of their charter rights. the people of the Maritime Provinces were getting in the grip of a railway monopoly. Already there were many complaints from many sections of high freight and passenger charges. Mr. Emmerson said that he did not wish to treat the matter from a partisan point of view; it was one phase of the great transportation problem, which sooner or later would have to be grappled with and solved. Clarence Jameson, of Digby, who followed, charged Mr. Emmerson with not having put his principles into practice while minister of railways, and expressed his belief that the present Government would safeguard the interests of the people.

The discussion was continued by several members, including Hon. Chas. Marcil, ex-speaker of the House. Mr. SEAFORTH FAIR WILL moderation and received applause from both sides. It was his first speech since being dethroned from the speakership. Steel Duties Remitted.

A number of important questions were asked by the Opposition and answered by the Government when the

Sir Wilfrid Laurier wanted to know if a remission of customs duties had been given to the Algoma Steel Company on steel rails imported at Fort William, the date of the remission and the statute under which the remission had been made.

Hon. Dr. Reid stated, in reply, that this remission was made at various times after June 1, 1912, under Section 92, of the consolidated revenue and audit act. The whole of the remission was $294,000, being one-half of the duty on 75,000 tons of imported $377.91 after paying off the balance of steel rails.
