

DUTCH GOVERNMENT ASKED TO SURRENDER FORMER KAISER

Supreme Council Drafts Note To Holland To Be Sent Saturday—Refers To Treaty Clause Providing For Extradition of Wilhelm.

PARIS, Jan. 15.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Supreme Council has drafted a note to the Dutch Government asking for the extradition of the former German emperor. It will probably be sent Saturday.

The note refers to Article 227 of the Treaty of Versailles, and invites Holland to join the allied powers in the accomplishment of this act.

Article 227 of the treaty of peace with Germany declares: "The allied and associated powers publicly arraign William II of Hohenzollern, formerly German emperor, for a supreme offence against international morality and the sanctity of treaties."

"A special tribunal will be constituted to try the accused, thereby assuring him the guarantees essential to the right of defence. It will be composed of five judges, one appointed by each of the following powers, namely, Great Britain, France, Italy, Japan and the United States of America."

The article also declared that it will be the duty of the tribunal to fix the punishment which it considers should be imposed.
