Chatham Canadian Club Announces Fine Program

Nina Gale, Madame Bieler, Margaret Clarke Russell of London, Ethel Hume Bennett and Others Are Scheduled For Talks.

Chatham may confidently look forward to six or more delightful afternoons with the Women's Canadian Club this winter. The executive made definite arrangements at their meeting this week for several speakers, and only the final settlement of dates only the final settlement of dates remains to be made with others. One of the early meetings will be called to hear Nina Gale of New York give a personal sketch of Marjorie Pickthall, whose exquisite poetry has won her the name of one of the most outstanding of Canadian poets. She is destined to become more widely known and loved in years to come. through a literary medium. She has promised to tell about the mechanical ary in Japan. Her friends are anxiously after the publication of her novel, "The Bridge." Since hopes of some day knowing Miss Pickthall in person have been destroyed, it will be delightful to have the opportunity of hearing about her from an intimate friend. An excellent orchestra, under the direction of Miss Doris M. Scott, has offered its services for every evening of fair week, and will play in the Campbell Becher booth. The chapter has also arranged for a very fine musical program to begin every afternoon at 4 o'clock. Monday's program will include vocal numbers by Miss Beryl Wainwright, numbers by Miss Beryl Walhwright, who is well known in London musical circles. Miss Walnwright will sing "Little Fairy Tales" by Thomas Morris, and "God Bless You, My Dear" by Adrian Holme Edwards. Pudney Brothers have seen to it that the chapter has a fine piano at their

New York, Sept. 7.—A well-dressed young woman pulled energetically at the coat-tails of her escort at a well-known Broadway cabaret, early this morning, as he scrambled about under the tables. "Get up," she said, "you are making yourself conspicuous, Let it go, it doesn't matter." The escont was searching for a dropped pearl ear-ring which, if real, was worth not a cent less than $15,000.

Most women will experience the same feeling this winter, for many of the evening dresses will fairly drip jewels, real or false—mostly false. No doubt is cast upon the old saying that all is not gold that glitters—but velvet of Rembrandt brown or Reupens blue, broaded in gold or silver, and strung with rhinestones or nearpearls, is guaranteed to out-glitter the finest products of the mines of Ophir.
