Norfolk-Elgin Tories Name Candidate For Coming

Federal Election.

Special to The Advertiser Simcoe, June 15 .- J. L. Stansell, M.P. for East Elgin, will again carry the colors of the Tories into battle in the new riding of Norfolk and Elgin at the next federal election. This was the chief outcome of the meeting of all party supporters, men and women, of the riding today at Courtland. The nomination seemed to meet with the utmost approval of the meeting, his name being the onl one proposed. Despite the fact that this riding people were strangers to each other, entire satisfaction was prevalent or Great tribute to the late Senator Alexander McCall, whose death took place recently, was paid by R. M. Hamilton, president of the association, in his opening remarks. Expresses Regret. Hon, J. S. Martin, Ontario minister of agriculture, expressed regret that he could not get out among the people more, but that affairs at Toronto were in such a state that he could not leave them long at any one time. But the branch of his department was doing good work in that dis trict, he hoped. The district, he said, was especially adapted to diversified farming, and he hoped there would be a big return for the farmer this year. He did not care to discuss provincial politics except to say that his was the only department that had not been found in a shocking condition.

Mr. Stansell spoke and his remarks were more or less on tariff. It could be easily understood that he was for high tariff or else he would not be going to represent the party he is. He believed that the only thing to tariff, but shed no new light.
