> and there is a strong upward tendency in some departments. Business at the Pacific coast is considerably more active. There has been a big demand for mining camp outfits, and many steamers, heavily laden, have sailed for the north since the first of the month. There is a very good local trade being done at west coast centres, and in Vancouver business is very satisfactory. The building boom at that city continues, and dwelling houses are still scarce, notwithstanding that five hundred dwelling houses have been erected in

At Toronto this week trade has been favored with fine spring weather, which has greatly assisted the movement in all seasonable goods. Active for him—and the money. No harm had been done by either her or her daughter.

Both were discharged.
One drunk was also allowed to go.

The spring has been rather backward in Manitoba, but seeding is besided for the shipment of large supplies to the North-west on the opening of upper lake navigation. Values in nearly all lines of staple and imported goods continue very firm. The farmers are now busy ploughing or seeding, and the deliveries of grain are small. Country remittances are a little slow, as is usual when the country markets get dull.
