But the catalogue of the latter is far from complete as yet. Several new ones were handed in last night, among the handsomest being a silver cup from the Ontario kennel club for the best English setter in the show, and a fine gold medal, to be named the "Hub medal," presented by Mr. W. Bingham. This last is to be given to the best dog of any kind in the show, the one scoring the greatest aggregate of points in his or her class to be the winner. The liberal donor promises that a duplicate shall be forthcoming every year that a first-class dog show is held in Toronto. A complete list of the specials will be issued as soon as possible. They will be made, as far as may be done, to cover any classes that have not been recognized in the prize list. It is hoped that all intending donors and subscribers will signify their intention at the earliest date, and the guarantee lists held by the difficent members will be asked for at the next committee meeting. The premium lists are now ready for distribution by post from Mr. Jackson, of Upper Canada college, the hon, secretary; or they may be had on personal application at the office of the vice-president, Mr. R. S. Cassels, King street east.
