Gazette published some ten days ago from its Newfoundland correspondent, the importance of which was at the time pointed out in these columns. The Washington despatch of Wednesday was much fuller and more definite, giving the exact words of the most important portions of the official correspondence. It gave in substance the information for which Hon. Peter Mitchell has twice asked the govern. ment at Ottawa: but which, as Sir John very properly replied, could not be given without permission of the imperial govern-

At last we get, not the desired permission from London, but the information itself, that we wanted from Washington This surely was important enough to be promptly published in full by the Canadian press, and it was so published "on time" by the World, by the Hamilton Spectator, and by the London Free Press, all of yesterday. The Mail of the same date published just twenty-seven lines of this most important despatch, the whole of which would about fill a column. Not a word to intimate that official letters passing between the British minister at Washing ten and the American Secretary of State had been given to the press. But the G obe, as we have said, fairly beat the eard by publi-hing just nothing at all of is important despatch. What the Moneal Gazette and the Herald have done in e matter we wait to see. In the first Mr. West draws the attention of the new American government, then only a week in office, to the fact that the first of July was drawing near, and suggesting that steps should be taken to prevent occurrences that might cause ill feeling between the two peoples. Mr. Bayard replied, approving of a temporary arrangement to continue the rights of fishing on both sides respectively, with the understanding that the president would ask congress, when it met in December, to appoint American representatives to act on a joint commission for the settlement of the whole question. Next Mr. West reminds Mr. Bayard that this is agreed to the whole question. Next Mr. West reminds Mr. Bayard that this is agreed to on the strict understanding that it is temporary only, and must not be held to prejudice any British claim. To which Mr. Bayard again replies, distinctly accepting this understanding as to the merely temporary character of the agreement, and as to its being without prejudice to any claim on the part of Great Britain orthe colonies. It will be seen that all this is in substantial agreement with what the Montreal Gazette published some ten days ago from its Newfoundland correspondent, the im—
